Olympics squad to train at club base

THE highly-rated Pakistan hockey team was arriving in Cannock today to prepare for the Olympic Games.

The squad is using Cannock Hockey Club as its training base ahead of the summer Games in London.

It will be a welcome return for the team, currently ranked eighth in the world, who played a three-match series with England on Cannock's pitches back in 2009.

Members of the public may be allowed to watch them train but the details are still being finalised.

Pakistan has been drawn in the same group as Great Britain for the preliminary round of the Olympic hockey tournament.

Modern

The 24-acre site at Church Lane, Hatherton, boasts three hockey pitches, two cricket fields, a fitness centre and modern clubhouse facilities.

Staffordshire county councillor, Pat Corfield, cabinet member for culture and communities, said he was "delighted" to have the team in the county for the next 10 days.

He said: "We are delighted to be welcoming the Pakistan hockey team and we are all very proud that we are able to attract a top 10 nation to use the excellent sporting facilities at Cannock Hockey Club."

Mascot Watchman V

Mascot's future uncertain after Staffords axe

THE FUTURE of the Staffords mascot is unclear following news the regiment is to be axed.

Staffordshire bull terrier Watchman V took over as mascot of 3rd Battalion the Mercian Regiment in October 2010 but was promoted to Lance Corporal at a special ceremony in September 2011.

Duties include official ceremonies, Remembrance Day services and parades, and sometimes even funerals.

The tradition dates back 300 years. But following last week's revelation that the battalion is falling victim to swingeing cuts in the Ministry of Defence, the dog's future has not yet been decided.

Belinda Steel, spokesman for the Ministry of Defence, said they could not confirm what would happen to Watchman V.

Campaign

She said: "These sorts of things will have to be worked out over time, so we really couldn't say at this stage."

Watchman V has also in the past been signed up to help an RSPCA campaign to showcase Staffies, and how they are loyal and friendly pets.

The former Staffordshire Regiment will disappear in cuts to reduce the Army from 102,000 troops to 82,000 by the end of the decade – that is its lowest level since the Napoleonic Wars.

The move will break a centuries-old direct link between the region and the military.

The regiment merged with two others to form the Mercians in 2007, with 3Mercian being referred to as "formerly the Staffords".

The Army is to lose 17 major units in the spending overhaul.

Anger as jobs bus set to be scrapped

CAMPAIGNERS have labelled moves to scrap a jobs bus that has toured Staffordshire for 15 years as 'deplorable.'

They are demanding the service be kept on for the benefit of those in the county who are struggling to find employment.

The jobs bus, which has helped the unemployed find work during its time in operation, is being axed at the end of this month.

Services to help jobhunters will instead be provided at libraries across the county, despite council bosses admitting the bus had been a valuable tool.

Scrutiny

Burntwood councillor Sue Woodward said: "It is deplorable that this service is being withdrawn at a time of rising unemployment and economic difficulty.

"We are demanding the county council retains this very valuable service until new, and hopefully even better, services are in place."

Councillor Woodward also said that she did not believe the new service had been given proper scrutiny and was concerned jobseekers would not being given proper guidance.

The service has run for 15 years at a cost of £50,000 and has served Burntwood, Rugeley and Hednesford. It is currently used by around 150 people.

Shoe retailer aids Newlife

A CANNOCK-based charity is quids in thanks to footwear retailer Schuh.

The outlet is selling reusable cotton bags for £2 with 10 per cent going to the Newlife Foundation. More than £9,000 has been raised.

Newlife CEO Sheila Brown OBE said: "All the valuable funds raised are used to help support disabled and terminally ill children and their families."

A CLOTHING superstore in Cannock has gone out of business with the loss of 30 jobs.

Fashion Factory in Vine Lane, Bridgtown, specialises in prom dresses.

It said the industry had been hit by internet shopping, the recession and people making their own clothes.

The store, which has been trading since 1994, closed its doors after going into voluntary liquidation. Customers were called to collect their dresses and the last day of trading was Saturday.

Owner Michael Edwards said all orders had been honoured. "The economic conditions have got the better of us," he said.

Phenomenon

The business sold designer labels catering for special occasion outfits, and did well out of the school prom phenomenon. When it began trading 18 years ago it was among the first to cater for the fledgling trend.

Sales at the store regularly caused traffic jams on the nearby A5 as shoppers queued to get on to the car park.

But Mr Edwards, aged 61, said income has been down by around 10 per cent over the last two years.

"When your outgoings are more than your profits at some stage you have to call it a day, and that time has come," he said.

The Fashion Factory, which has closed

"Fashion is particularly affected by the economic climate, look at Marks & Spencer's clothing sales.

"We're just one stand-alone store but the situation is reflected in the high-profile retailers as well," he said.

"In a recession, when people are only going to wear an outfit once, a lot are looking to buy second-hand. I predict more and more will turn to ebay."

Mr Edwards said the poor weather has also affected sales, with much of his summer stock left unsold on the racks.

The sudden closure has shocked customers.

"They've all said lovely things which makes our situation so much sadder," said Mr Edwards.

Customer Jean Brown, of Shoal Hill, Cannock, said: "I'm really going to miss it. It was the only place round here you could buy top-of-the range clothes. It was always busy and the staff there knew you."

Youngsters walk to win

MORE than 800 children from 14 different primary schools took part in a walking challenge as part of the Chase Community Games initiative.

The youngsters completed a two-mile trek along the Heritage Trail for the Walk2Win event, starting from Birches Valley and arriving at Marquis Drive.

Along the trail, they undertook a number of tasks and met some new characters as part of the 'Cannock Chase Kids' Club', which encourages children to visit Cannock Chase with their families. On arrival at Marquis Drive, children enjoyed an Olymp-icnic before splitting into schools for activities including arts and crafts, dance, play and much more.

One of the aims was to promote how much fun Cannock Chase can be.

Councillor Christine Mitchell, leader of culture and sport, said: "It was great to see so many young children taking part."

Photos are now available to view on the Council's Facebook page – search for Cannock Chase Life. More information on the Kids Club can be found at www.thegoodlife.uk.net

MPs left saddened as regiment facing axe

TORY MPs have condemned the decision to axe the 3rd Battalion the Mercian Regiment as part of cuts to the Armed Forces.

Army bosses have given assurances that most of the regiment would be absorbed into other battalions, according to Lichfield's Michael Fabricant.

Last week, it was announced the former Staffordshire Regiment would disappear in cuts to reduce the Army from 102,000 troops to 82,000 by the end of the decade.

Five of the Army's 36 infantry battalions will be disbanded under the plans.

Mr Fabricant said: "While I can understand the need for cuts, the nation is £2 trillion in debt and Labour left the Ministry of Defence with a £38 billion black hole, I am saddened that the Defence Secretary has decided to salami slice the Mercian Regiment.

"However, I have received firm assurances from the MOD that most, if not all, of the 3rd Battalion will be absorbed into other battalions and regiments.

"The Secretary of State has also said that it will be up to the Mercian Regiment to determine how the Staffords name, identity and traditions can be maintained within the Mercian Regiment."

Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley said he was "deeply saddened by the announcement."

"My immediate concern is for the jobs and livelihoods of the affected personnel and their families, especially those associated with Cannock Chase," he said.

"The MoD has confirmed that most of the unit will be reallocated within the Mercian or other regiments and I am very hopeful that the Staffords name, identity and traditions can be maintained within the Mercian Regiment."

Motorbike rider killed in collision at junction

A MOTORCYCLIST died following an accident in Cannock.

The red Yamaha machine was in collision with a black Kia Magentis car at the junction of Cemetery Road and Victoria Street, at around 2.05pm on Friday (July 6).

The motorcyclist, named as David Hall, aged 61, from Stafford, was taken to the University Hospital of North Staffordshire where he was pronounced dead. Police said no-one else was injured but are asking for witnesses to call 101.

A stretch of Cemetery Road was closed for around two-and-a-half hours while inquiries were carried out.

The incident came the day after a man in his 60s was killed in a crash in Norton Canes.

Terence Osbourne, aged 66, of Cannock Road, Heath Hayes, was the rear seat passenger in a silver Peugeot Partner people carrier which collided with a blue and white HGV on Walsall Road, near the M6 Toll, at around 1pm.

The driver of the Peugeot, a woman aged in her 60s, and the lorry driver, in his 40s, were taken to Walsall Manor Hospital with minor injuries.

Olympic Torch in safe hands

Helena Pickerill and the Olympic Torch with St Peters Primary School children Kieron Timmins, Olivia Hammond, Kyle Baskeyfield and her sister Chloe

THE Olympic Flame was in safe hands when talented sports girl Helena Pickerill was asked to carry it during its run through the West Midlands.

And, last week, the netball goalkeeper relived the experience when she returned to her former school to show off the Torch.

The 14-year-old, who represents the school and county and also excels at rounders, carried the Flame on its leg between Birmingham and Coventry. A Year 9 pupil at Kingsmead Technology College pupil in Hednesford, she was invited back to an assembly at her old school, St Peter's Primary, to give youngsters the chance to see the Torch close up.

"I spent a big chunk of my life at the school so to give something back was an honour," she said. "To carry the Torch was a really overwhelming experience."

Town in focus as jobs fair arranged

CHASE MP Aidan Burley is looking to get Chase people back into work by organising a jobs fair in Hednesford.

It will take place from 10am to 4pm on Friday, August 31, at the Light Works in Market Street and follows events in Cannock and Rugeley last year, from which more than 50 people found employment.

Mr Burley has already invited more than 120 local businesses, organisations and charities to exhibit. Major firms like Tesco, Randstad and Bluebird Care have already confirmed their attendance, but the MP is calling on more businesses to get behind the event.

He said: "Many employers tell me they are looking to take on new people, either right now or in the near future, but that they do not know how best to meet those in search of a job.

"At the same time many local people who are out of work tell me how desperate they are to get a job but do not know which employers are looking to recruit.

To reserve a place, contact Aidan Burley on 01543 502447 or email aidan.burley.mp@parliament.uk

The girl was not seriously injured. She said a group of girls nearby had witnessed the assault.

Celebrating the best in business

TV PRESENTER Llewela Bailey hosted the first ever Cannock Chase Business awards on a night that the area's fightback against the economy was recognised.

Eleven companies picked up prizes at a packed ceremony – but the real winner was business itself.

There more than 80 entries for the 11 categories, and 220 people in attendance at Bar Sport's Premier Suite.

In his opening speech, Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley said: "We want to give recognition to all the businessmen and women who are the unsung heroes of the towns of Cannock Chase. These awards are in recognition of their hard work and success.

"To see over 200 successful businessmen and women in the same room was quite overwhelming. These people are the lifeblood of our local economy, and it is about time we celebrated their success."

Steve Mallows, from organisers thebestofcannock, said: "It's great to see a room full of businesses together, especially given the current climate."

A four-strong judging panel decided on the accolades, which were presented on the night by either Mr Burley or the award sponsors.

Corky's Cars made history as the first ever recipients, collecting the award for the Most Innovative Business. The introduction of an app to allow customers to book via iphone swaying the judges.

People Development Award — South Staffs College

Jessica's Fresh Foods won Best Independent Retailer

Weedon PSC receive the Green Business Award

Contract

Owner Will Rotchell said: "I can't say how I feel, it's absolutely fantastic. We have listened to what the customers want and we have moved forward so much."

JP Enterprises, which refurbishes and sells on laptops, were the winners of the Promising New Business Award.

They have been operating only since 2010, but have just landed a major contract and have the chance to pick up three more, enabling them to take on new staff and move to a bigger unit.

John Paul Doble, who runs the business with Amy Reynolds, said he was 'chuffed' at the recognition.

Andy Yates paid tribute to his father and grandfather after collecting the Long-Established Local Business Award. Andy runs Bird and Yates with his sister Jayne, carrying on the family tradition that began way back in 1919. Andy said: "It's recognition to my grandfather that started the business. We treat our customers right so they keep coming back to us."

Next up was the People Development Award which was won by South Staffordshire College. Judges said the winner stood out thanks to its excellent results, the development of its staff and others and its commitment to raising standards.

Shorade Accident Repair Centre is a 35,000 sq ft state-of-the-art bodyshop in Walsall Road, Cannock and holds approvals for luxurious models such as Lamborghini, Porsche and Mercedes Benz. It picked up the award for Putting Cannock Chase on the Map.

Recruit

Parcel and pallet delivery firm EDS Couriers won the Family Owned Business prize, while more than 300 testimonials from customers were instrumental in seeing The Drive Cleaners Ltd pick up the Customer Service Award. Since 2005, they have built up a customer base of more than 1,200 and are now looking to recruit.

Tony Williams was delighted as his Hednesford-based repackaging company Weedon PSC – which employs 120 – picked up the award for Best Green Business. "We are a small family-owned company with a global reputation," he said. "We've won a national award before, but it's a great honour to get one at a local level." The award for Best Leisure and Entertainment Provider went to the long-serving Padma Lounge in High Green. Tarak Lubhi, from the restaurant, said he was 'delighted' to receive the award.

Jessica's Fresh Foods, based in Market Hall Street, Cannock, won the Independent Retailer award. Carl Moule, who established the business in 2004, now has plans to expand the thriving operation.

Kazoo Print Solutions have gone from strength to strength, moving into a bigger premises at Cedars Business Park, Avon Road, and taking on its first apprentices through South Staffordshire College.

Expansion

Judges were impressed enough by its development and expansion to award it the award for Notable Effect on the Local Economy.

Simon Talbot, from Kazoo, said: "I'm absolutely over the moon. This is the first business awards and we are one of the first winners."

But it was not just the winners who paid tribute to the event. Linda Aitchison, of the Marketing Room, shortlisted for the Most Innovative Business, said: "We are happy to be a finalist alongside some wonderful businesses. It's been a wonderful evening, very well organised."

A final award rewarded a Notable Charity, with the Newlife Foundation taking the honours ahead of the Martin Woodward Cancer trust, the Hibbs Lupus Trust and Dog Aid.

New wheelchair to give Samuel a lift

PUPILS have been getting crafty, designing ways to collect money in aid of a Burntwood teenager.

Year two pupils at Five Ways Primary in Heath Hayes were set a challenge to design and create their own money boxes, which they have been filling with loose change.

The money – £168.15 – will help fund a lightweight wheelchair for 17-year-old schoolboy Samuel Asbury, through Cannock-based charity Newlife Foundation for Disabled Children. Samuel, of Erasmus Darwin Academy, in Chase Terrace, broke his back when he fell off his bike while on holiday in 2009.

He is now a full-time wheelchair user, but the model provided by statutory services is heavy and difficult to manoeuvre.

Mum Mandy said: "The wheelchair he has is not only heavy but is uncomfortable for him – that was all that was available through local services."

The chair which best meets Samuel's needs costs £3,164, so his parents approached Newlife.

Newlife CEO Sheila Brown said: "Our equipment grants are vital and really can enhance a child's life.

"But Because of the huge demand we are calling on 'local heroes' to help us raise money to fund equipment."

Retailers' reward to let shoppers spend penny

SHOPKEEPERS in Cannock, Hednesford and Rugeley will be offered cash incentives from the council to let members of the public use their toilets.

Cannock Chase Council is looking at the idea to help solve a toilet shortage in the three towns.

by Harry Gottschalk

Glenn Watson, the council's economic development manager, said the only alternative solution would be to build new public toilet blocks costing the authority thousands of pounds.

Mr Watson said: "The cost would be thousands upon thousands to build new toilets.

"This way it gets people into the shops and fulfils the demand for the council."

Mr Watson said it was too early to say exactly what kind of reward the shopkeepers would get for making their toilets available.

Access

"That is to be decided, it would maybe work on a sliding scale", he said.

"If a business offered access to a single toilet upstairs, it wouldn't be as good as having more than one toilet and disabled facilities downstairs."

Mr Watson said similar schemes had proved popular in some parts of London and parts of the Scottish Highlands.

The idea has been met with approval from Cannock Shopping Centre manager Natal Chapman. She said: "We do have a shortage and I am very keen to get involved and will be holding a meeting with the council in the next couple of weeks.

"It's a two-fold solution which I think could help traders," she said.

Councillor Alan Pearson, who represents Hednesford North, said the town had a shortage but this should be solved when the giant new Tesco opens, scheduled to be around Christmas time.

Currently there are toilets in Cannock near the Argos store and inside InShops. Both of these are inaccessible when the centre closes.

Market trader Anne Franks has been campaigning for years for more public toilets in the town.

She said: "They want to build a new big shopping centre so people can spend pounds, but they won't even be able to spend a penny.

"Everybody needs to have the facility to go to the toilet," added Anne.

"There were toilets by the bus station years ago, but since they've gone where do they think the bus drivers go after 6pm, especially the female ones?"

Mardle's on the oche at bar

Darts player Wayne Mardle takes on local challengers at the new Darts Zone

FLAMBOYANT player Wayne Mardle looked every inch 'Hawaii 501' as he opened the new darts zone in front of an enthusiastic crowd at Rileys Sports Bar in Cannock.

Clad in shorts, flip flops and his trademark Hawaiian shirt, Mardle – now a voice for the sport through his work as a commentator on PDC events for Sky Sports – took to the oche to play against 12 punters.

Competitions had been held at Rileys for weeks to play a leg against the former World No 5. As a player, Mardle reached four World Championship semi-finals between 2004 and 2008 and was World Matchplay runner-up in 2003.

Although not currently active on the PDC circuit, the 39-year-old still regularly competes.

The popular character also staged a question and answer session.

Fashion store fundraiser

A FASHION store in Cannock is hosting an evening to raise funds for a local church tonight (Thursday).

The Bon Marche store will be holding a raffle for the Chadsmoor Methodist Church between 6pm and 8pm.

The shop, on Peel Court Market Hall Street, is holding the event after a fashion show they wanted to hold for charity in April had to be cancelled.

Shoppers will also be able to get a 30 per cent discount on the evening.

Party to celebrate market's 20 years

A HUGE party for thousands of people will be held in Penkridge later this year to mark the 20th anniversary of the town's market.

Owners Mike and Liz Williams have organised a community fun day in October to celebrate the milestone achievement.

They are planning to present several awards to stallholders at the event, including a Best Traders trophy.

Mrs Williams said: "It has been a fantastic 20 years and we really are truly grateful for all the loyalty and support from both our customers and traders in the time we have been here.

"We have seen many changes and there have of course been challenges, but even in this difficult economic climate, we are still busy and thriving.

"We really hope everyone will come and join in the celebrations on October 27."

Activities with a global theme

CHILDREN can journey around the world this summer holiday with fun activities at the Museum of Cannock Chase.

Every Wednesday from July 25 to August 29 the Valley Road, Hednesford, museum is hosting arts and crafts workshops and fun and games with the Play Rangers.

Activities will have an 'Around the World' theme and will include making chinese lanterns, aboriginal inspired dot art pictures and Olympic torches.

Drop-in sessions costing £1 and pre-booked workshops at £3 also run across the six week break.

Proposals to cut regional pay opposed

COUNCILLORS in Cannock says public sector workers will lose up to to 15 per cent of their salaries under Government plans to cut regional pay.

Cannock Chase Council is writing to the Chancellor opposing plans for localised public sector pay.

Deputy council leader Janos Toth warned the pay cuts could be damaging to workers and the local economy. No figure has been put on salary changes but experts suggest reductions of between five and 15 per cent.

A teacher in Cannock on £24,000 would lose £3,600 if a 15 per cent 'downward adjustment' was made, a full council meeting heard.

Councillor Toth said: "The cut in pay in some cases could be devastating. And, with people spending less, this will have a direct effect on trade in our town centres.

"We have been talking about regenerating Cannock, Hednesford and Rugeley but these proposals will mean people will have less money to spend on food, clothes and so on."

Conservative group leader Councillor Paul Snape welcomed the council's decision but said the idea of regional pay was introduced by former Labour Prime Minister Gordon Brown.

Windfall is jobs boost

A JOBS boost has been announced for Cannock Chase and Lichfield, as part of a £1.5bn regional investment programme.

The Government has agreed to pump the cash into the Greater Birmingham and Solihull Local Enterprise Partnership which will use it to generate economic growth and boost employment in the region.

The aim is to help create 100,000 jobs within a decade.

The windfall is an agreement between the enterprise partnership and the Government.

Firm takes stand

A RUGELEY firm which designs and refits pubs, nightclubs and restaurants has been showing off its innovations to more than 200 student unions. GMP Design took a stand at the National Union of Students Trade Conference and exhibition at the NEC, the principal trade show for the £200m student market.

Grand at stake for 'champion of champions'

Elaine Petch, mother of Olympic-winning gymnast Louis Smith

A BURNTWOOD pub is offering a grand prize to a 'Champion of Champions'.

The Nags Head, in Rugeley Road, is on the lookout for locals who give their all to support future sporting talent.

The pub/restaurant is looking for people to nominate proud Burntwood parents who put their children first, a colleague that's always going the extra mile or a committed coach in the community.

Bosses have even teamed up with Elaine Petch, mother of Olympic medal-winning gymnast Louis Smith, to recognise and reward the time, effort and money that people like her dedicate to support other people's sporting dreams.

One overall winner, as voted by a panel of judges including Elaine, will win £1,000 cash and the person who nominated them will win a party for 10.

Nags Head general manager Susan Goldsbrough said: "We know there are plenty of people in the local community who go out of their way to help others in sport but we need local people to tell us about them.

"It might be a parent who drives hundreds of miles to take their kids to training, or someone who has spent their whole life running a local sports club.

"That's why we're looking to give something back to someone who always puts others first."

Visit www.chefandbrewer.com or www.facebook.com/chefandbrewer to nominate.

Village development 'vital' to economy says applicant

DEVELOPERS behind a £20m new mini-village in Penkridge claimed the plans are "vital" to the area's economy. The plans have gone before South Staffs Council.

The proposals for the Lyne Hill Industrial Estate include a 70-bed hotel, a supermarket and a nursing home.

Offices, shops and 165 homes are also included in the plans which would create 200 jobs locally.

Simon Hoare, managing director of Community Connect which has helped draw up the plans on behalf Northcreek Estates, said people villagers spent around £32m in other towns and said the new development would help claw some of that back

"We expect to create around 200 jobs – and at a time when the government is encouraging private investments, that ticks a big box," he added.

The proposals are a scaled back version of previous plans, which were rejected by South Staffordshire Council's planning committee in December.

Destroyed

The planned 44,500sq ft supermarket has now been downsized to 28,500sq ft, while the number of new homes has been increased from 150.

A total of 551 people lodged objections to the original blueprint, claiming it would have "destroyed" Penkridge.

Mr Hoare said he believed the revised draft addressed all the issues raised over the previous plans.

"The supermarket has been reduced in size, meaning the size of the car park has also been reduced," he said. "The site is smaller in size and therefore is a lot more respectful of the size of the village."

Workshops giving out pets advice

CHILDREN in Cannock can learn how to care for pets responsibly with a series of free summer workshops.

Pets at Home is launching its Kids' Holiday Pet Club for the fifth consecutive year. These are especially designed to educate children on responsible pet ownership in a fun, friendly and interactive environment and take place at Cannock's Orbital Centre store throughout the summer holidays.

Children will be able to interact with a wide variety of popular pets and will get friendly support from highly-trained staff. They will each receive a free activity book and a certificate.

Store manager Joanne Stephens said: "We want to share our expertise with as many local children as possible, to ensure that pets live happy, healthy lives.

"Our 'Furry Friends' workshops will teach them how to best look after a variety of small animals such as rabbits, guinea pigs, hamsters, rats or gerbils. The 'Scales and Fins' workshops will focus on reptiles, fish and wildlife.

Workshops will take place at the store at least three times a week and will last approximately 30 minutes.

Power walking by staff in fundraiser

npower's Karen Kaur, Amy Moore, Liz Walsh, Steve Stanton, Pippa Welch, Rachel Barker and Nicole Steinhofel

FIFTEEN workers from npower's Burntwood office are facing a mountainous task this month.

They will be putting on their hiking boots for a 3,500 ft trek to conquer the summit of Mount Snowdon. Their efforts will raise much-needed cash for Macmillan Cancer Support.

The routes are still under discussion but organisers Amy Moore and Dene Hale, along with their colleagues, are all raring to go as the July 21 deadline approaches.

Amy said: "The idea was initially discussed over our Christmas meal and we're all now behind it and know we can do it.

"There is no better charity than Macmillan, especially as it is close to the hearts of several of the walkers and other colleagues in our office."

Enthusiastic

The team hopes to raise £1,000 from the trek, added to npower's 'match-funding' initiative.

Colleague Dene said: "We are all enthusiastic Macmillan supporters. In the past we have had charity events including cake sales and even some sponsored body waxing by a few of the guys."

Walkers so far include Steve Stanton, Stephanie Hopkins, Rachel Barker, Nicole Steinhofel, Peter Robinson, Richard Marsh, Dene Hale, Lee Darby, Brent Lamb, Konstantinos Kafetzis, Liz Walsh, Pippa Welch, Karen Kaur, Dave Molde and Amy Moore as well as some of their friends and families who have agreed to join them.

Wanted – a Torchbearer to light up life of others

A GREAT Wyrley student became the envy of many a teenage girl when she got to carry the Olympic Torch with boyband The Wanted.

Hannah Jukes, aged 17, with her Olympic Torch

Hannah Jukes, left, runs the Torch relay alongside The Wanted

However, Hannah Jukes and her pals were even more stunned when the heart-throbs turned up at one of their homes on the day of the relay.

Hannah, aged 17, was chosen along with friends Paige Cockayne, Thomas Preece and Sammy-jo Rowson, from Maddison's Dancing and Cheerleading school in Shelfield, to run with the Flame through Great Wyrley and Newtown.

"It was really amazing to run with The Wanted," said Hannah, whose favourite of the quintet is Nathan Sykes.

"On the morning we were told to meet at Paige's house in Pelsall to go down to the meeting point together. Then The Wanted just appeared," she added.

Memories

Hundreds of well-wishers lined the streets as Hannah and co joined the chart-toppers as Torchbearers – and each ran 60 metres with the Flame.

The Great Wyrley Performing Arts High School pupil is now taking her cuttings, photos – and memories of the day – on her latest mercy mission to South Africa.

As part of of Link4Life, a church and schools project in Great Wyrley and Chelsyn Hay, Hannah is part of a team that helps deprived children in the townships.

She leaves this week for her second visit, after first undertaking the project two years ago.

There, she will help to provide home-based care for families that, because of Aids, are predominantly child-led, giving the stricken youngsters basic care as well a food, support,shelter, education – and above all, hope. Yet, until starting dance classes, Hannah, who lives in Norton Canes, was low on self-esteem, having struggled at school because of dyslexia.

She has since built on that extra condfidence and is now studying for A-Level in English, psychology, sociology and media. It is a story that gives hope and inspiration to many. Hannah said carrying the Olympic Torch and meeting The Wanted had been like a dream come true and now hopes her lead can set an example to others.

"My message would be just don't give up, because the only person you are giving up on is yourself," she said.

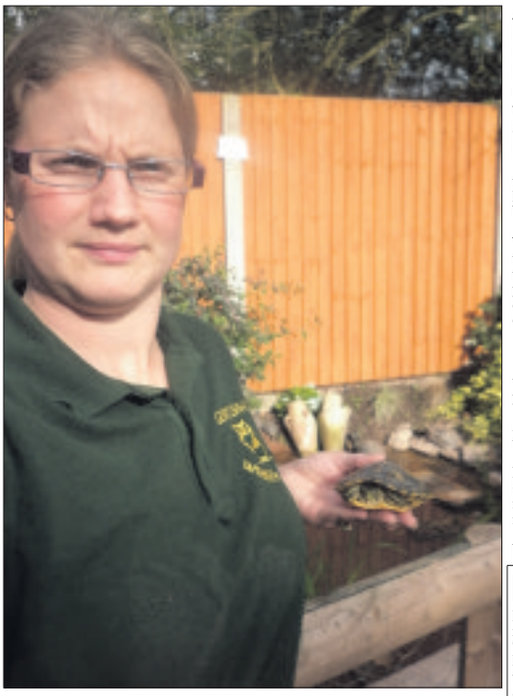
Don't abandon pets plea after terrapin is dumped



The rescue centre's Jenny Morgan with the terrapin named Wyrley

A TERRAPIN was found dumped in a road in Great Wyrley. Specialists from the Gentleshaw Bird of Prey hospital near Stafford have now taken in the animal – and have warned people to not just abandon their pets when they no longer want them.

A member of the public stumbled across the creature while walking their dog in Norton Lane last Wednesday, July 4. It had been dumped in bag.

The shell-shocked animal was taken to 387 Vets in Walsall Road and then transported to the rescue centre in Eccleshall. It is a species that can grow quite large and have long lifespan and has recently become the most common animals to be bought into the rescue centre.

Sanctuary

A spokesman said: "The young terrapin would certainly have died had the member of public not found it.

"Luckily, we just about have the space to add the little guy to the 15 strong group of terrapins already housed at the sanctuary."

She added: "Many of the other terrapins had also been found dumped, some on Cannock Chase. We would like to urge people not to just dump their exotic pets when they no longer want them.

"Not only does this put the animal at risk but also endangers our native wildlife."

Blood donor sessions

DONORS are invited to roll up their sleeves in Cannock next week. NHS Blood and Transplant will be at the Civic Centre in Beecroft Road and is appealing for volunteers. Sessions take place from 1.30-3.30pm and from 4.30 to 7.30pm on Monday, July 16. Call 0300 123 23 23 to make an appointment.

'Bungalow munching' changing area's face

ETCHING HILL is within the Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty that is Cannock Chase forest.

Recently the area has come under attack from "bungalow munching" whereby typically two, four bedroom homes are perched on the site after demolition, adding little to this historic village. Investment would be better served regenerating the town and providing starter homes.

Rugeley Town Council and Cannock Chase planning committee have rejected this over-development, recognising it changes the face and feel of the area.

However, the applications continue. If you value Etching Hill, what's best for Rugeley and the Area of Outstanding Natural Bea-uty that is Cannock Chase, lodge your support at saveetchinghill @gmail.com

List of achievements by the area's MP

I WAS amazed to read the letter from Mr Davies (Chronicle June 28) in which he stated that Aidan Burley had done nothing for Cannock Chase and its people since becoming their MP.

On the off chance that Mr Davies has been out of the country for a couple of years, can I list just some of his achievements during that time:

Organised two successful jobs fairs directly finding jobs for more than 50 local people as a result

Spearheaded a cross-party campaign to electrify the Chase Line, and organised an adjournment debate in the House where he personally put the case directly to the Rail Minister.

Helped to reunite a constituent and his abducted son, and took up the issue with the Prime Minister at PMQs.

Successfully campaigned against the incinerator at the Poplars site – which is now no longer being built.

Fought Cannock's corner in relation to A&E at Stafford Hospital, and became the first local leader to say the management must deliver or go.

Arranged for Cannock and Rugeley Rugby Clubs to experience playing at Twickenham, during which they raised £11,000 for charity

He has also performed 25 volunteer days supporting local charities, while his innovative walk-in HelpZone has helped more than 1,500 constituents.

I could go on.

By all means criticise Aidan's beliefs if you disagree with them but do not try to make out that he has done nothing for Cannock Chase.

Some teenagers do know what is right

TEENAGERS today often get negative press. I want to share a positive experience that I had at the Great Wyrley Carnival on June 30. I lost my phone and after I had reported it to the police I telephoned my mobile.

It was answered by two teenage girls by the names of Holly and Charlotte. After a brief conversation it was returned to me on the field where the carnival was taking place.

I am grateful to them for their honesty and kindness. They are a credit to themselves, to their parents (I hope they note this and future employers do too) and to teenagers in general.

Next time that you hear somebody complaining about 'teenagers today...' tell them that there are teenagers that have been well taught and do know things about charity, justice and knowing what's right.

Avoiding tax payments

WE hear about Jimmy Carr and other high earners avoiding payment of the correct tax by legal fiddling but I think this started in the 1960s. Jimmy Carr was wrong but I can't really blame anyone trying to avoid paying too much tax because of the higher rates of tax for higher earners. The one thing I would make sure before anyone tried to avoid paying tax is that their earnings were first taxed at 20 per cent the same as mine!

Support for Age UK team

ON behalf of the staff and volunteers from the Age UK South Staffordshire Ward Support Service, we would like to thank Chadsmoor Methodist Church for its wonderful help and support given to our team at a coffee morning on June 23.

We had an amazing display of cakes, a tombola, plant stall and raffle and the church members served the tea and coffee.

We are delighted to say that with the help of our volunteers and church members we were able to raise a magnificent total of £400. The event gave us the opportunity to show case Age UK South Staffordshire and the services that we provide.

The money will be used to purchase equipment and resources that we need to provide practical help to the patients and to improve the patients experience at Cannock and Stafford hospitals.

Ex-miner's ode to four-legged friend

THE following relates to my early working days at Harrisons No.3 Colliery – The Sinking to the locals.

Aged 15 years, in 1954, I entered the mines following my father, but immediately I realised I would not be making this my lifetime career, seeing a lot of the older men afflicted with pneumoconiosis, or silicosis, plus the really bad conditions, I was determined to leave.

Eventually I did, but my one big regret was having to leave behind my wonderful pony.

The poem explains this, and by the way, I was fined several times by the then manager Mr Frank Barlow for riding the horse, an offence under the Mines Act, but it was all done with good humour. Great Days!

My Four-Legged Friend
Whilst working down the mines, as nothing but a boy
I didn't realise what I'd do in my employ,
Digging coal did not appeal, or driving a new road,
Instead I drove a pony, to deliver every load.
Wooden pads or props, a metal strap or bolt,
My wonder horse was Dick, a glossy chestnut colt.
He never let me down, from the very start,
An equine of distinction, he knew the job by heart.
He was braver than a lion, stronger than a bull,
Not too many loads my hero couldn't pull.
Each day I took a titbit, a carrot or stale bread,
Even though I knew he was healthy and well fed.
After work I rode him, along the railroad track,
He didn't seem to mind that I was on his back.
We'd reach the stables first to end a busy day,
I took his tackle off, gave water and some hay.
I really do regret that I left him to his fate,
But in my mind I see him hurdle Heaven's gate.
And when I also too, reach my destiny, the end,
It's carrots evermore for my great four-legged friend.

BOILER SCRAPPAGE SCHEME IS BACK, GET A £400 VOUCHER FOR YOUR OLD BOILER

In 2010 the government ran a scheme in which domestic home owners could replace their expensive to run gas boiler for a new condensing boiler, this scheme was set up to help home owners with the initial cost of replacing the boiler plus helping the government in reaching its carbon emissions target.

The £400 voucher could be redeemed when replacing an old, inefficient central heating boiler for a new high efficient gas boiler.

APH Services Ltd of Rugeley have re introduced the Scrappage scheme for a limited time, Matt Clarke of APH Services ltd said "the £400 voucher is a great way for local home owners to replace their boilers during these hard economic times."

Vouchers will be given to the first 100 customers meeting the criteria so you are advised to inform family and friends ASAP.

A rated gas condensing boilers are 90% efficient and with the correct thermostatic controls can save you 30% on your gas bill, that's up to £350 per year in an average 3 bed house.

To obtain your voucher call APH Services ltd.

Fitness fans put to test in unique competition

FITNESS fans from across the country are to try their hand at a unique competition being held in Cannock this weekend.

The CrossFit competition is being staged by the army style functional training centre BC One.

It takes place on Saturday, July 14, from 9am to 4pm and will see some 80 competitors converge on the premises at Walford Works, in Longford Road.

Originating in the United States, CrossFit is the latest fitness craze sweeping the nation. Participants are put through their paces with a series of punishing constantly varied, high intensity, functional movement fitness challenges with the goal of improving fitness.

Competitors are entering this weekend's competition in teams of four and will take part in five separate challenges including kettlebell surges and burpee combinations, punishing runs with a heavy object, Olympic clean squats and jumping off and onto boxes.

BC One owner Ian Stanley gets ready for the CrossFit competition

Surprise

A fifth element of the competition is being kept a surprise for competitors on the day.

BC One CrossFit Cannock has tied their own competition in with The CrossFit Games taking place in America between July 13 and 15.

Fitness trainer Ian Stanley, owner of BC One CrossFit Cannock, said: "We have been amazed by the response and filled up capacity for the competition within days of announcing the event.

"As well as teams local to Cannock we have competitors coming from London, Liverpool, Clitheroe and Nottingham."

Spectators are welcome and there will be a barbecue in the afternoon. Prizes have been supplied by Wolverhampton based Wolverson Fitness.

The cost per team to enter is £40 and £5 of this will be donated to Chase Day Services which BC One CrossFit Cannock supports by offering fitness opportunities to its users.

BC One CrossFit Cannock was a former derelict factory and opened in February. The £40,000 facilities include several pull up workstations based around the perimeter of the 8,000 square foot warehouse and also hosts rope climbs, gymnastic rings and kettlebells.

Group fitness classes run throughout the day and involve up to 40 people in the session per time.

The classes run from 7am most days until 8.45pm.

Call 01543 897078, email info@bc-one.co.uk or like their page on Facebook CrossFit Cannock BC One.

South Staffordshire Regiment cap badge

Famous Army regiment that fought to the end

The famous Staffordshire Knot badge

A CHERISHED military bond forged in the Kings Head pub in Lichfield 307 years ago has been broken. The fighting force formed during a meeting on March 25, 1705, linked the army to the people of the Black Country and Staffordshire.

For three centuries, generations served with distinction on the world's battlefields in what became known as the Staffordshire Regiment.

The courage of those soldiers is remembered in memorials such as the frieze at Walsall Town Hall commemorating the breaking of the Hindenburg Line on September 30 1918, a vital step towards the ending of the First World War.

The Staffords were the only British battalion to be awarded two Victoria Crosses in the same engagement during the Second World War and the bravery of its troops continued through the Northern Ireland conflict to the Iraq War where they helped free 127 prisoners and destroy the hated Jamiat police base in Basra on Christmas Day 2006.

MEMORY LANE

by John Scott

The two VCs won by the Staffords in the Second World War were won at Arnhem in September 1944 by Lance Sgt John Baskeyfield and Major Robert Cain, whose daughter is married to TV host Jeremy Clarkson. Both were serving with the South Staffords Regiment which merged with the North Staffords to form the Staffords in 1959.

Another Staffords hero was L/Cpl Coltman from Burton on Trent who did not carry a weapon because he was a Quaker but operated as a stretcher bearer and won the VC, the DSM and Bar and the Military Medal and Bar, being awarded the five medals for his bravery in collecting casualties over 17 months during the First World War. He survived conflict. The name of the Staffordshire Regiment and its famous Staffordshire Knot cap badge disappeared during the 2007 revamp of the army that created the Mercian Regiment through the merger of the Cheshire and the Worcestershire and Sherwood Foresters regiments with the Staffords.

They were then split into three separate battalions on the lines of the previous regiments and the 3rd Battalion The Mercian Regiment (3Mercian) became the new Staffords. Now 3Mercian is to be axed in another restructuring of the British Army.

3Mercian returned from a tour of duty on the front line in Afghanistan last year during which one of its soldiers was shot dead while on patrol and several others were wounded.

The battalion is among a handful of mechanised infantry units in the British Army with its troops trained to use Warrior vehicles as well as conventional 'light' infantry skills.

Perils of speaking in public

CHESLYN HAY TOWNSWOMEN

OVER the last few months members have enjoyed listening to speakers Penny Wheat and Patsy James.

Penny spoke of 'The perils of public speaking' from getting lost on the way to a venue, to being in the right place but the wrong room for the wrong talk.

Patsy showed many pictures of adverts of products that members had all used and either loved or hated over the years. These included, blue sugar bags, Dig For Victory and Carter's little liver pill to mention just a few. She also gave many interesting dates and facts about the advertising industry.

The visit to Highgrove Gardens was excellent with a first rate guide giving the group the benefit of her knowledge of the Prince's plans for his gardens.

Letters of thanks were received from the family of late popular member, Mary Perks and from the recipients of our charity funds.

The disgrace of homes left empty and foreign aid money not being used for its intended purpose are the two mandate topics that representatives to the Federation A.G.M. will vote on.

The annual table top sale for the guild's charity fund is to be held at a coffee morning on the first Thursday in August at the Salem schoolroom at 10.30am.

Compassus Centre is a place of dignity

CANNOCK SOROPTIMISTS

CANNOCK Friends of St Giles arranged visits to the St Giles Compassus Centre, Whittington for Soroptimist members.

St Giles head of fundraising Helen Relihan, along with members of Cannock Friends, showed small groups around the in-patient unit as well as the new education centre.

Soroptimists were amazed and delighted at what they saw and heard – large, airy and light spaces; single en-suite rooms as well as some three-bed rooms, terraces which can be accessed by all patients and their families, a library and ICT facility.

Eileen Cryer, Immediate Past President of SI Cannock & District, Helen Relihan, of St Giles Hospice, Janette Arrowsmith, chairman of Cannock Friends of St Giles

Past President of Soroptimist International Cannock & District Eileen Cryer had chosen St Giles as her charity for the year as president and was with one of the groups for the visit. She and Cannock Friends chairman Janette Arrowsmith presented £1,000 raised by the Cannock club.

Far from being a place of gloom, Soroptimists found St Giles Compassus Centre a place of warmth, compassion and dignity. Visits can be arranged for small groups by contacting St Giles direct or by contacting Janette Arrowsmith on 01543 503739

The Friends group holds fundraising events, gives short talks on the work of the hospice and the new Compassus Centre and accepts donations which many request in lieu of gifts or flowers.

Club needs new secretary

LADIES PROBUS CLUB

CHAIRMAN Pauline Parlane welcomed members and visitor Carrie Summers to the June meeting.

A pot of lettuce grown by the chairman was put on each table and everyone given a number. A draw then took place and one person on each table won the lettuce. Pauline reminded members that a secretary and assistant secretary would be required for 2013 and asked for volunteers. The date of the Joint Probus Club lunch at The Terrace is July 18.

Speaker was Alison Rushton from Oakhouse Foods. The vote of thanks was given by Val Beale.

Act of Commitment

Councillor Ken Humphreys and wife Maureen attend the civic service at Christ Church, Burntwood

THE annual civic service for Lichfield District councillors to pledge their commitment to the district's residents has taken place.

As part of Lichfield District Council's Civic Service, council chairman Ken Humphreys led the Act of Commitment at Christ Church in Burntwood. He invited parish, district and county councillors to acknowledge their responsibility to the community and pledge their commitment to the service of the people of Lichfield District.

Guests, including friends, family and civic heads, later joined the chairman for lunch at St Matthew's Sports & Social Club.

Councillor Humphreys said: "I would like to thank Christ Church for a beautiful service. I was honoured to lead my fellow councillors in the Act of Commitment, confirming the council's pledge to serve the people of Lichfield District."

Crash death driver given jail sentence

A MOTORIST has been jailed for killing a lorry driver by crashing into him as he changed his tyre on the hard shoulder of a motorway

Father-of-six William Maiden was sentenced to 14 months at Shrewsbury crown court for the crash that killed Chris Tolley, a 52-year-old dad-of-three from Cannock.

by Richard Woodall

Mr Tolley had stopped on the hard shoulder of the M54 between Albrighton and Shifnal after a tyre blew, said Judge Robin Onions

The court heard that when a roadside assistance van arrived to help Mr Tolley he was standing at the rear of his vehicle.

A lorry driven by Maiden, aged 49, hit the van and it was pushed against the lorry, trapping the victim. Mr Tolley, who worked for Pentalver Cannock Ltd, was pronounced dead at the scene. The judge said Maiden "probably" fell asleep at the wheel for a few moments causing him to crash into the vehicles.

Maiden, of Maple Close, Trench, Shropshire, admitted causing death by careless driving and causing death when driving without the correct insurance.

The judge directed a not guilty verdict on a charge of causing death by dangerous driving. Maiden was also given a three-year driving ban.

'We will rock you' – pupils

A CANNOCK school is this week putting on its own version of the successful West End show We Will Rock You.

The four-night run at Cardinal Griffin RC High School, in Cardinal Way, kicked off last night (Wednesday).

The pupils have taken part in several money-spinning events, which have included packing bags at local supermarkets, to fund the show.

The performances start at 7.30pm each night. For details call 01543 502215.

Jubilee quilt sewn up

Mary Barratt from the Chadsmoor Tapestry Group with the quilt that has been made for the Queen's Jubilee

A QUILT embroidered to mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee has gone on display in Cannock this week. The Chadsmoor Tapestry Group will eventually send it to Buckingham Palace.

Twenty-six members of the group played their part in the creation. Each of them was given a square of fabric to embroider their own themed design.

The pieces were stitched together and the finished item was unveiled last Saturday to members at Chadsmoor Methodist Church, where the group meets on Wednesdays.

The quilt was going on display at the offices of Cannock Chase Council in Beecroft Road this week.

On July 27, it will be moved to Chasewater Innovation Centre where it will be displayed for another month.

Brenda Marshall, chairman of the group and project co-ordinator, said: "It took about six months to put together. As a group, we wanted to celebrate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee. We are thrilled with it."

Councillors putting bid for cattery to the vote

A CHASE councillors plans to open a cattery in Rugeley catering for up to 20 pets at a time have met with opposition from nearby residents.

Neighbours have objected to the bid by Councillor Danny Davies to run the business from his home in Kingsley Wood Road. Officers were recommending approval.

Objections put forward include traffic worries, noise from the cats and fears it will set a precedent for other similar businesses in the residential area.

Brindley Heath parish council has also complained that the business would offer no benefit to residents.

by Harry Gottschalk

Commercial

A parish council statement reads: "There are no compensating benefits to the area or very special circumstances which might offset or outweigh the detrimental effects of such a business in this location.

"The area is already amply supplied with such establishments, some of which are operating below capacity."

Nearby resident Albert Hargreaves said: "Any commercial activity would increase the volume of traffic, increasing the danger to local residents, their children and the many visitors who regularly use the road."

Another, Brian Murray, said: "This is clearly a commercial development in a residential area," he said.

Councillor Davies, who represents Etching Hill and sits on Cannock Chase Council's planning control committee, said: "It will be for people on holiday and perhaps for people who have to go in to hospital."

A decision was set to be made yesterday (Wednesday) with Councillor Davies sitting out the vote.

Specialist crime team sees bail rates reduced

ALMOST two thirds of suspected criminals who would previously have been released back onto the streets are being charged and hauled before courts in the south of Staffordshire, latest figures reveal.

A specialist police unit has driven down bail rates from 30 per cent to 12 since it was introduced. The Force says people suspected of serious crime are no longer being bailed simply because police have run out of time to quiz them.

Under the system, serving Cannock, Lichfield, Stafford and South Staffordshire, the 18-strong team begins gathering evidence within minutes of an arrest to try to ensure they have enough to charge suspects and bring them before magistrates.

Tributes to hockey club stalwart on death at 97

FAMILY tributes have been paid to a Cannock hockey stalwart who has died at the age of 97.

Bert Sambrooke was a founder member of Cannock Hockey Club and umpired matches well into his 60s. He was also a keen cricketer and played for Cannock & Rugeley for a number of years.

Bert was the founder member of Cannock Probus Club and served as its treasurer from 1992-94.

Bert Sambrooke

A former coalworker, Bert was secretary of the miner's welfare committee. He began his working life as an office boy at the Valley pit offices in Rugeley Road, becoming chief clerk. He continued to work for the Coal Industry, ending his career at the British Coal computer centre in Cannock.

Bert was also a member of the congregation at St Peter's Church, where he was christened, confirmed and married, to Hilda. His funeral service also took place there.

Daughter Carole Howard, one of four children, said: "He loved St Peters Church and he served this church in many roles. He was treasurer of the parish magazine for several years and was a member of the men's group which met on a Saturday morning to do maintenance work."

Moved

He met Hilda while both were members of amateur dramatic group belonging to St Michael's Church, Rawnsley. He later served with the Royal Army Medical Corps in Italy and the North African Campaign.

In April 2010, Bert and Hilda celebrated 70 years of marriage. Hilda passed away in December that same year. Widower Bert moved to School Court Nursing Home in Station Road in January this year, where he lived until the time of his death.

Carole said: "We will miss a very intelligent, articulate man who supported and guided his family through good and not so good times."

As well as Carole, Bert leaves behind daughters Jill and Joy, son John and seven grandchildren.

Drivers hit by parking tickets rise

DRIVERS in Cannock Chase were hit with a 19 per cent rise in parking tickets in the last year – despite the axing of an enforcement officer.

The remaining four officers netted £181,097 in fines in the 12 months to April, handing out 7,178 tickets – 1,131 more than the previous year.

Around a fifth of tickets were cancelled following appeals – down slightly from 2010-11.

On-street penalties made up the majority of tickets at 4,141 while there were 3,037 fines for breaches at off-street car parks.

District council bosses said irresponsible parking was a concern repeatedly reported by residents.

Despite the increase in tickets, they added the service continued to operate at a loss and was subsidised by the county council.

Annual summer fun day held at museum

FAMILIES are invited to a free fun day at the Museum of Cannock Chase later this month.

The museum's annual summer family fun day takes place on Sunday, July 29 in Valley Road, Hednesford, from noon until 4pm. It will have a red, white and blue theme.

Attractions include a bouncy castle, facepainting, Punch and Judy shows at 12.15pm, 2pm and 3pm, drop-in art and craft workshops, willow weaving and a children's fancy dress competition.

On their marks

A CANCER survivor from Cheslyn Hay is gearing up for her fifth Race for Life to raise vital funds for research into the disease.

Debbie Ringham has teamed up with 11 colleagues from Birmingham's Cancer Research UK Centre to take part in the women-only event at Cannon Hill Park on July 22.

She was only 24 when she noticed a lump in her neck in 2000. "I couldn't believe it when I was told I had thyroid cancer," the 36-year-old manager said.

Debbie underwent an operation at the Queen Elizabeth Hospital to remove her thyroid gland, followed by intense radioactive iodine treatment.

House burgled by autistic teenager

A COUPLE returned from celebrating their golden wedding anniversary to find their home broken into and ransacked by a burglar.

Gifts and jewellery belonging to the pair were taken during the raid. The haul, worth more than £2,000, is still missing. Stafford Crown Court heard the burglar was Bradley Smith, an autistic teenager.

by Marion Brennan

Smith, aged 18, of Cemetery Road, Cannock was sentenced to nine months youth custody suspended for two years and ordered to do 150 hours unpaid community work.

He admitted two charges of burglary and one of attempted burglary.

Judge John Maxwell told him: "I am sure you realise how serious this offence was."

Mr Paul Farrow, prosecuting, said the couple had gone away for the weekend on March 23 to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary.

They got back on Sunday night to be told by their son their house in Calf Heath had been burgled. A door in the conservatory had been smashed and the couple's bedroom ransacked.

Smith also stole several gifts and other property including the television.

Police arrested Smith on March 27 after he tried to steal from a garden shed in Cannock.

The defendant had previously burgled a garden shed in Gresham Road, Cannock on January 29, stealing copper piping and tools.

Mr Chris Clark, defending, said Smith was autistic and would be very vulnerable in custody.

Excavation work to prepare the land at Kingswood Lakeside Business Park in Cannock is well under way, according to the firm's marketing manager Steve Salt.

He said: "We are still on schedule and looking at September/October for it being ready."

Neighbours object to housing complex plan

RESIDENTS opposed to a housing complex for people with living disabilities have signed a petition against the proposals.

Planning chiefs on Cannock Chase Council were recommending the scheme for approval ahead of a meeting yesterday (Wednesday).

Bilston-based Heantun Housing Association wants to create an accommodation block on vacant land off Woodside Place.

The supported living development would cover an overall area of almost 12,000 sq ft and would consist of six one-bedroom flats, a bungalow and a two-bedroom 'resource flat'. The scheme has prompted a petition from residents.

The district authority has also received eight letters of objection. Planning officers have recommended approval.

People living nearby are worried about the scale of the development and insufficient parking. They say they are also concerned about noise and a loss of privacy.

Kelvin Allport, a 40-year-old builder, from Woodside Place, said he felt the project was totally inadequate for the size of the intended build and the size of the land they proposed to build on.

"Our street is going to be flooded with unnecessary traffic which is already under increased strain," he said.

Retired Brian Clews, aged 72, said: "It is going to be an eyesore. I don't think anyone in this street supports it, more cars in the street means it could be dangerous for kids."

Saddling up for big ride

Haydn Greenway prepares to cycle 100 miles for charity

A KEEN cyclist is saddling up for his biggest challenge by riding 100 miles to raise money for the Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Haydn Greenway, aged 58, of Manor Avenue, Cannock, will cycle from his home to Church Stretton in the Shropshire Hills and back on August 1. Mr Greenway chose to cycle for MS after a friend of his was diagnosed with the illness. Fundraising has already seen him raise £200 for charity.

He said: "I'm a regular cyclist and use to cycle to work in Birmingham. I am hoping to do this trip in eight hoursTo sponsor Mr Greenway call 01543 571996

Webbs, a family run Business since 1958

Webbs is a family run business, now managed by Steve Webb, the son of founder Ken. The business has traded since 1958 and now has a large database of 30,000 customers throughout the midlands.

In its early years the company sold a range of goods including furniture, carpets and lighting but electrical goods was the way to go.

Webbs has never looked back and has traded through revolutionary change in this fast paced industry, from colour TV and video recorders to today's LED screens and the latest smart televisions.

Steve Webbs says "This is a great trade with fantastic new products continually coming to market. The best thing though is matching those products to the right customers. It's that interaction that gives us all satisfaction and of course most importantly happy customers". An experienced and enthusiastic team is key to Webbs success. Steve says "I am very proud of the people that work for me. Many have joined straight from school and have been here for over 20 years.

That makes for a really warm, friendly atmosphere in the store, and of course a level of experience and expertise that other electrical retailers cannot match".

Webbs have recently added extra services to its offering. They now install aerial systems and satellite dishes and also electrical work is now undertaken such as extra mains sockets, phone points, lighting and wireless security alarms.

Wall installation of televisions is big business for Webbs. Steve says "we can hide cables in walls, plaster over, and do whatever the customer wants really. What we have found is that people want somewhere reputable with a high street presence to do this kind of work for them, they can come and talk through exactly what they would like, and we offer free site surveys".

We like to think we offer a level of service that other electrical retailers will struggle to match. We deliver the same day, we respond to service calls the same day and leave loan TVs. We will run 2 TVs out to customers who cannot decide which one they think will suit their room best and let them decide at home. People love this service and we have 3 generations of families dealing with us. Most of our new customers came to us via recommendation.

This year's hot product for Webbs is smart TV. Steve explains "we mostly concentrate on Samsungs new range of smart TVs; they have a full Web browser, really great apps and even a Skype camera. Properly installed they are a fantastic product, and they are beautifully styled. I would urge customers to come in and have a proper demonstration.

This range of TVs really does represent the future of television".

So Webbs will continue to do as it always has deliver the latest technology with old fashioned service and courtesy to happy customers.

Diamond couple mark 60 years of bliss

Diamond wedding couple Bill and Jean Taylor

The Heath Hayes couple on their wedding day in 1952

A COUPLE who had met only twice before conducting a three-year courtship by letter are celebrating six decades of marriage.

Cannock-based Jean and Bill Taylor were introduced at a church social club by Jean's cousin, who lived in Bill's home town of Oldbury.

They met once more before Bill, then 18, went into the Army for more than three years. The couple,of Darwin Close, Heath Hayes, met up again on Bill's return in 1949 and married three years later at St Luke's Church in Cannock.

They both worked as clerks for the National Coal Board – Bill, 84, at Littleton Colliery and Jean, who is 81, at Allport Road.

MP's joy at forest news

MP Aidan Burley says increasing visitor numbers to woodland areas like Cannock Chase should be the top priority after the Government confirmed forests will remain in public ownership.

The Conservative MP said the Forestry Commission would need to "evolve" to ensure forests can be enjoyed by "increasing numbers of people for generations to come".

Mr Burley was speaking after the announcement that the 3,000-acre Chase will not be sold off to private investors. The Chase is among 640,000 acres of woodland which will continue to be run by the Forestry Commission. Plans to sell them off provoked a public outcry.

Environment Secretary Caroline Spelman has written to MPs confirming she will support the findings of the Independent Panel on Forestry.

Voices

The Government will be issuing a full response in January 2013.

Mr Burley said: "I am delighted that the people of Cannock Chase have had their voices heard.

"This announcement is fantastic news for Cannock Chase and all the local people who treasure our forest and open space."

He added: "The Chase is our number one asset, and the panel's recommendations are good news for visitors and tourists.

"We now need to consider ways that we can make the forest an even more accessible facility, so it can continue to be enjoyed by increasing numbers of people for generations to come."

In her letter to MPs, Ms Spelman wrote: "We are not selling off the Public Forest Estate. I agree with the panel that it should remain in public ownership."

Heavy rain puts an end to three-day jubilee festival

A JUBILEE festival in Burntwood has been cancelled because of the weather.

The three-day Wakes event, renamed this year in honour of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee, was due to take place from July 20-22 at Burntwod Rugby Club. But persistent heavy rainfall has made the ground unsuitable.

A Town Council statement said: "It is with the utmost regret that Burntwood Town Council has to announce the cancellation of the Jubilee Festival. The persistently heavy rainfall has made the ground unusable."

It added: "We know how much everyone has been looking forward to the festival and we wish to convey our apologies to the entertainers, exhibitors and the public.

"The great tradition of the Burntwood Wakes Festival will continue next year and we will start our planning as soon as possible."

Rail fans steam in

Organiser Alan Stevens at the model train show held at Chasewater Heritage Railway last weekend

HUNDREDS of model railway enthusiasts flocked to an exhibition at Chasewater County Park.

Around 10 traders set up pitches at Chasewater Railway Heritage Centre last Saturday and Sunday.

In all, 22 exhibits were set up and people strolled around the centre looking at the many different model carriages and railway layouts which had been set-up for the occasion.

The event was organised by the Chasewater Model Railway Committee.

Alan Stevens, secretary of the committee, said: "It's been very successful. We've had hundreds of people through the doors for the event.

"People enjoyed looking at the model railway layouts, and there were people demonstrating how to make model trees and model buildings."

Industrial death verdict on tiler

A CORONER is writing to the Health and Safety Executive over the potential risks associated with removing old floor tiles.

It follows the the death of retired tiler Ernest Sanders from asbestos exposure.

Mr Sanders, of Bideford Way, Cannock, died aged 84 at Stafford Hospital on January 31 from bronchopneumonia caused by the industrial disease mesothelioma, an inquest heard.

He had worked for Sevenoaks-based Marley Tiles in a self-employed capacity on new building projects in the Staffordshire area for 45 years and it is believed that this was when he was exposed to asbestos.

His son, retired police officer Graham Sanders, told the Cannock hearing that the dangers of asbestos in pipe, ceiling and wall insulation were well-known but were not associated with flooring.

"My father was putting down these brown tiles 60 years ago.

Danger

"What troubles me now is that people could take these tiles up not realising that there is a danger there."

A post mortem found a significant amount of asbestos fibre.

South Staffordshire coroner Andrew Haigh recorded a verdict that death was due to an industrial disease. He added he would be forwarding his report to the HSE.

Chaos as lorry overturns

AN overturned lorry caused traffic problems for drivers on a busy main route. Pottal Pool Road, in Penkridge, was closed and a diversion put in place while the vehicle was recovered on Tuesday. Police were called to the scene at around 5am after the white Scania lorry overturned. The driver was uninjured. Traffic was backing up along the nearby A34 Stafford Road.

Youngsters light flame for Olympics day

YOUNG pupils got into the Olympic spirit with a fun sports day at their school in Burntwood.

Former pupil Jacob Kelly, now a Year 11 pupil at Cardinal Griffin in Cannock, was joined by Isabelle Clarke, a student a Friary School in Lichfield, to open the Olympic day at St Joseph's at St Theresa's Primary in Chasetown.

Representing Team West Midlands, they were both recent medallists at the schools youth games in London at the Olympic Velodrome.

The pair gave a cycling demonstration to the pupils and showed them pictures of the new Olympic venues.

Some 210 Children from all school years took part, from reception up to Year Six.

Parade

A spokesman for the High Street school said: "All of our classes represented a different country and made flags to wave during the opening parade.

"Representatives from Lloyds TSB sponsors of National Schools Sports week also worked in the school for the day assisting the children with events."

The children had the chance to play Paralympic football. Other sporting events included the relay, long jump, hurdles, shot putt, bean bag throw and javelin.

The winning country on the day was the United States. Other nations represented were Great Britain Greece, Jamaica, Kenya and Spain.

NEWS in brief

Ex-villager gives history group talk

FORMER villager Ron Darby will give a presentation to members of Bridgtown and District Local History Society next week.

Ron is well known locally for his portrayal of the Chase, showing birds, animals, flora, and many other familiar sights of the area, to a musical accompaniment, together with comical photographs as a variation.

The talk takes place at 7pm on Wednesday, July 18 at the community centre in Bridge Street.

Non-members are welcome. Admission is £1.

Chairman to open fun day at school

SOUTH Staffordshire Council chairman Councillor Mary Bond will open an annual fun day at a Great Wyrley school.

She will officially open the event at St Thomas More Catholic Primary in Huthill Lane on Sunday, July 15 at noon.

Unravelling Hoard secrets

A £250,000 grant has been awarded to archaeologists to try to help them uncover the secrets of the Staffordshire Hoard.

by Richard Woodall

The money will be spent on research, cataloguing and the creation of images of all 3,500 items.

The first stage of the research into the ancient Anglo-Saxon find is due to be complete by October. A team based at the Potteries Museum in Stoke is carrying out the work.

The group includes an Anglo-Saxon finds cataloguer, a specialist artefact photographer and an archivist.

The research will include preliminary catalogue entries, X-radiography and the testing of metals and other materials.

Research

The Mercian Trail partnership – a cross-council group including Lichfield District Council, Staffordshire County Council and Stoke-on-Trent City Council – has contributed an extra £68,000 to the research programme.

Councillor Mark Meredith, Stoke's cabinet member for economic development, said: "It is the first time such a comprehensive analysis of all the thousands of hoard artefacts will have been recorded.

"This work is necessary to help our understanding of these unparalleled treasures.

"As the research progresses, it will lead to new discoveries into how the beautifully intricate artefacts were put together, and help unlock secrets as to why they came to be buried in a Staffordshire field."

The new grant comes after English Heritage also awarded hoard researchers £276,000.

Spokesman Barney Sloane said: "The beauty and sheer size of the hoard has astonished the world, but the real excitement starts now with the unravelling of its significance.

"This research will ensure that public displays are informed by the highest possible level of scholarship and will answer some important questions about the hoard."

Terry Herbert, a metal detector enthusiast,discovered the hoard in July 2009.

One of the scarecrows made by Lauren Davies and Jack Martin of St Luke's School reception class

It's get set go on scarecrow festival in town

SCARECROWS made on an Olympic theme will adorn a Cannock church festival this weekend.

Some 29 characters have been made by youngsters for the St Luke's Church fete on Saturday (July 14).

It takes place from 10.30am within the grounds of the town centre church and features music from The Salvation Army Youth Band, Maypole dancing and face painting. Food will include a barbecue and an outdoor cafe.

There will be a model railway exhibition inside the church, while more than 25 stalls will offer books, plants, crafts, tombola, homemade cakes, jams and pickles, jewellery and toys.

Games include skittles, penalty shoot out, putting, coconut shy, wiggly wire, hoopla, roll a coin, pick a lolly and guess the name of the teddy.

The fete will be opened by the Walsall FC manager Dean Smith.

Festival of music set for debut

A HOST of bands are taking the stage at a musical festival in Cannock this month.

Third Angle Projection, Havana Affair, Glass Bullet, Neomantix and Phaser are among the performers at the first ever Wellington Drive Music Festival on July 28.

Organiser Royston Edensor, of XZenith Promotions, said the festival was the first of its kind, but would continue in years to come.

He stressed it would be well-managed, adding: said: "We want to get away from the big business formulas like Glastonbury."

Nearly 500 people are expected at the site. Other attractions include face-painting, jugglers, fire-eaters, fairground rides and quad bikes. There will also be a licensed bar and trade stalls.

The event runs from noon until 10pm. Entry is £5 with under-fives admitted free.

Village chapel to mark anniversary

VILLAGERS are invited to join the festivities at the anniversary of Cheslyn Hay's Salem Methodist Chapel this weekend.

A garden party kicks off the celebrations on Saturday (July 14) from 2-4pm.

At 7.30pm a Fellowship Evening follows with a bring and share supper and home-spun entertainment.

Sacrament led by Rev Anthony Hick takes place on Sunday at 9am with services at 11am and 4pm.

Guided tours and displays by user groups take place until 6pm.

Ploughman's Lunches will be served.

Happy Tots enjoy trans-Atlantic fun

NURSERY children enjoyed celebrating both Canada Day and American Independence.

On Canada Day, July 2, the youngsters from Happy Tots, at Orbital Plaza, Bridgtown, dressed in red and white, made Canadian flags and made pancakes.

For July 4's Independence Day, they made American flags and liberty torches, baked cookies and muffins and wore red, white and blue.

Proposed £3m bridge over rail crossing dubbed 'ugly'

A view of the proposed bridge, described as 'ugly' by protesters, from the railway line

AN image has been released of a proposed two-lane £3m bridge over a dangerous level crossing in Cannock Chase.

The structure has been criticised by protesters who say the bridge – which could take up to 1,000 cyclists a day as well as horses and walkers – is "too ugly" to be placed in the picturesque forest setting.

Plans have just been submitted for the covered structure at Moors Gorse, off Marquis Drive.

Alien

The chosen design is a green bridge to blend in with the surroundings. A steel arch, including ramps, which would have been the simplest to build and taken up less room, was considered too "alien" for the setting.

Instead Network Rail is seeking permission for the 17ft high bridge with grassed earth ramps on either side of the Rugeley to Hednesford railway track.

A fence will screen users.

A safer crossing has become necessary because of the introduction two years ago of a 15-mile mountain bike trail through the forest which has boosted cyclists to more than 3,000 at weekends.

by Marion Brennan

The existing level crossing is a designated public footpath and bridleway across the rail line but was not designed for the number of people who now use it.

Network Rail says there has been an increase in accidents and near-misses at the spot, either from users misjudging the speed or direction of an approaching rain, failing to spot a second train or crossing when the lights are red.

The green bridge is the preferred of six options but residents are opposed to the structure which they say will overlook their gardens.

Mother-of-two Wendy Emery, of Marquis Drive, said: "It's ugly. This is an area of outstanding beauty and this plan is out of keeping with the surroundings.

"The ramps are too high and the fencing looks like a corral to keep us in."

The residents plan to lodge an objection with Cannock Chase Council.

Plea is made to winner of art contest

The winning sketch

THE winner of an art contest more than 50 years ago is being sought so she can be reunited with her creation.

The competition was held in the school room at the then St John's Meth-odist Church, in Hednesford in 1967. It is now known as Trinity Methodist Church.

It was won by Audrey Shepherd with a crayon portrait of a young girl with bunches. The subject was her daughter Laura.

The late Dennis Broadbent chose the winner and put Audrey forward to have formal art classes. As a gift, she presented him with the winning drawing framed.

Mr Broadbent's family is now looking for Audrey, or a relative, to get in touch and reclaim the picture. Call us on 01543 465304.

TRAVEL

A resort beyond pier

SOUTHPORT boasts the oldest iron pier in the UK and it is the country's second longest (after Southend), which you will well believe after the bracing 1,216 yard walk to its slot machines at the end.

From pier to eternity – Southport's pier is the UK's second longest at 1,216 yards

But don't expect to hear the waves lapping beneath your feet, the tidal range of the Irish Sea here is so massive that you may have to peer from the end of the pier to see the white-topped breakers in the distance.

However, that does mean one heck of a big beach, that gives the locals their nickname of Sandgrounders. And if you don't fancy the long walk back, there is a pier tram or, for the less self-conscious, a toy town train.

Fifteen miles north of Liverpool and just over two hours by car from the West Midlands, Southport has given itself the title England's Classic Resort. It does have Victorian elegance alongside the bucket-and-spade trappings.

Take a New Orleans style paddle boat ride on the Southport Belle on the Marine Lake, the Ramada Plaza Hotel beyond

Plenty of retail therapy opportunities on Southport's long Lord Street with its elegant Victorian arcades

The long, tree-lined and flower-festooned Lord Street is said to have inspired the boulevards of Paris. The future Napoleon III of France did spend time in exile in Southport before his triumphant return to Paris, where he cleared medieval streets to make way for wide tree-lined thoroughfares.

Lord Street has lots of canopied shops with several old style shopping arcades, of the sort 1960s planners foolishly destroyed in many other towns.

One of them, The Royal Arcade, includes a massive antiques/bric-a-brac market covering 30,000ft over two floors.

The oldest part of Southport, Churchtown, pre-dates the resort and its thatched cottages have been turned into tea rooms, restaurants and independent shops. Nearby is the restful Botanic Gardens including an unusual, grotto-like Victorian fernery. The receding coastline means the town's Promenade is now alongside the large saltwater Marine Lake, on which a Mississippi style paddle boat cruises.

New land on the seafront has been turned into charming parkland and retail/leisure park Ocean Plaza, including a modern cinema and ten pin bowling.

Tattoo

Probably the town's most unusual attraction is the Tattoo Museum on Princes Street.

More than 5,000 tattoo artefacts are crammed into a working tattoo artist's shop, including the earliest machines and designs dating back to Victorian times. Because they own the designs, they can give you one of those vintage tattoos.

The success of Sefton's golf coast – five championship links courses within a 10 minute drive – has seen the arrival of new hotels, including the four star Ramada Plaza Southport.

It is part of an imposing modern lakeside complex on The Promenade, including the town's main theatre and conference centre.

There are more than 100 restaurants, cafes and tea rooms in Southport. I can recommend French style bistro Auberge and Spanish tapas restaurant Finos at the Waterfront.

Look Who is going to face a Final Test at the Grand

FORMER Doctor Who Colin Baker admits it will not be too much of a stretch to play an opinionated, pedantic stick-in-the-mud in new comedy play The Final Test, which opens at Wolverhampton's Grand Theatre on Tuesday for a five-day run.

In Chris Paling's play he has the role of Peter, who spends his summer dozing or reading the newspaper in the garden whilst listening to his beloved Test Match cricket. He is oblivious to everything else, including the fact that his wife is leaving him and selling their Bexhill-on-Sea home. When new owners move in they find they have an elderly squatter in their garden.

Cricket

Asked if he indentified with the character, the actor said: "Yes, quite a lot. We are both stubborn, like cricket, crosswords and it could be said housework is not my thing."

Colin Baker was the sixth incarnation of the Time Lord, in the mid-1980s, and remains popular with fans of the TV series (known as Whovians).

"There are often some Whovians in the audience, usually young men, and often they have never been to the theatre before and they enjoy the experience," he added.

Former Doctor Who Colin Baker gets ready to be stubborn and grumpy at the Grand in comedy The Final Test

Singer Selis is so versatile

Eve Selis, Robin 2, Bilston

AWARD-WINNING American blues/rock singer Eve Selis clearly enjoys being in front of a crowd and her enthusiasm was at a high level from start to encore before the small but appreciative crowd at the Robin2.

The Californian doesn't have the most powerful of voices but she does make the most of her clear vocals which were sometimes lost among the harder rock sounds from her group of highly talented musicians.

Worthy of mention are the guitar playing skills of Marc 'Twang' Intravaia, who has co-written many of the songs with Selis and 'Cactus' Jim Soldi who knows how to make an axe talk.

Bluegrass

Selis showed her versatility switching easily from rock to blues to bluegrass such as The Ballad of Kate Morgan with a little country thrown in along the way. She gave her latest album Family Tree a run for its money with no less than nine of its 13 tracks used, including the title song written by Calman Hart, one half of the impressive support act Berkley Hart, from San Diego.

A couple of cover versions included a banging version the Johnny Cash's Fulsom Prison Blues. The other was the done-to-death Hallelujah by Leonard Cohen and Selis and co tried to put a fresh spin on it. Water Off a Duck's Back had a heavier blues sound with hints of Amy Winehouse creeping into Selis' voice.

Danny Farragher

Laughs helped break tedium

Dead Ringer, Wolverhampton Grand

THE Ian Dickens summer play season continued last week with Charles Ross' Dead Ringer.

The plot tells of an actor who is engaged to impersonate the Prime Minister, who dropped dead the evening before the General Election, but soon becomes too comfortable in his new role.

The wordy and complex script proved difficult in parts and fluffed lines detracted somewhat from the plot in Act One. The comical lines, when they came, were worth waiting for and a couple of laugh out loud moments kept the audience awake during Act Two.

It was ex-star of The Bill, Chris Ellison who looked most at home in his role as a hard man security expert.

Alison Norton

Tales from the war zone

A GROUP of wounded service personnel who took the West End by storm in January with the play The Two Worlds of Charlie F, will bring their true stories of conflict and recovery to audiences at Birmingham's New Alexandra Theatre.

The Bravo 22 Company will perform in the city for four performances (July 19-21) before heading to Edinburgh Festival Fringe in August and returning to the West End. The Royal British Legion-backed production won standing ovations at The Theatre Royal Haymarket in January.

The project has been supported by top director Trevor Nunn, actor Ray Winstone, and patron General Sir David Richards, Chief of Defence Staff.

Shakespeare festival is a showcase for future stars

Romeo and Juliet, Stafford Shakespeare Festival, Stafford Castle

TWO unknown actors take the lead roles for this year's outdoor offering, the Bard's tragedy about young lovers from warring families.

Make a note of their names. Poppy Drayton and Dwayne Walcott are fresh out of drama school and both making their professional debut. They played their roles to perfection. Word perfect throughout, there was an obvious chemistry between the two as the star-crossed lovers.

This is the fourth Stafford Shakespeare play directed by Peter Rowe and he brought back several performers for this wholly watchable production. Christopher Fry (who plays Benvolio), Anthony Hunt (Friar Laurence) and Graham Kent (Capulet) were all in the 2010 production The Merry Wives of Windsor and make a welcome return to the castle.

Emmerdale

Previously, big name actors have taken roles in the Stafford Shakespeare Festival. Dan Mison, Victor McGuire, Sally Lindsay, Stephen Beckett and Eric Potts all spring to mind. This year it is the turn of Leah Bracknell, better known as Zoe Tate in Emmerdale, who took the role of Lady Capulet in her stride.

While previous productions have added humour, this plays with a pretty straight bat. What comedy moments there are come from the Capulet nurse played by Nicola Blackman. SFS debutant James Haggie did not look out of place as Balthazar, while Dan De Cruz showed off his talents as Tybalt, with support from Thomas Judd (Paris), Peter Manchester (Mercutio), Paul Kissaun (Montague) and Ako Mitchell (The Prince).

Yet again it rained. In true acting spirit the show must go on – and all can take credit for an enjoyable performance. Romeo and Juliet runs until Saturday (July 14).

Kenneth Branagh

Wallander
BBC1, 9pm
Wallander is sent to Riga after the disfigured corpses of two men are found on a life raft. However, several incidents make him wonder if his Latvian counterpart, Major Karlis Liepa, may be leaking information to those responsible for the murders. Kenneth Branagh, Soren Malling and Ingeborga Dapkunaite star in a tale written in the early 1990s. The book comments on the unstable political situations faced by former Soviet republics at that time, so it will be interesting to see how this adaptation – made two decades later – handles that aspect of the story.

MOTORING NEWS AND REVIEWS

CHRONICLE MOTORING

powered by motors.co.uk

Your essential guide to the world of motoring compiled by Motoring Editor Sharon Walters

Baby you can drive my car . . . it's a hit from a modern Beetle

MY first car was a green VW Beetle and I have fond memories of learning to drive and after passing my test exploring the country with my new found freedom.

By Neil Ward

It wasn't always plain sailing and having some mechanical ability certainly helped. Nevertheless, I have always held the Beetle in high esteem.

Some pundits have suggested that new Beetle has evolved from the original: I disagree. If you take a look at the Porsche 911 you can see a direct line back to the original.

Not so with the Beetle, the new one has front engine, front wheel drive so for me it is a homage to the original. If this sounds like I disapprove of the new Beetle then you are mistaken.

For a start the latest incarnation of the Beetle has moved forward the latest shape the most obvious change being the rear light clusters which I was not struck on.

It is only when you compare directly with the model before you see the significant body changes that have been made. That said it is still unmistakably a Beetle.

Opening the driver's door reveals a colour coded dashboard that is not dissimilar to my first car and gives a perspective which I think is unique in today's cars.

The dashboard is clearly laid out with what has to be the largest fuel gauge I have ever seen.

Illuminated

Then I spotted the Fender decal on the door speakers. This is a £500 upgrade that gives 400watts of power a subwoofer in the boot and illuminated door speakers. It is worth every penny if you enjoy listening to your music.

What does differ dramatically from my first car is the performance and the handling. The 1.4 engine is a peach and sometimes it is difficult, because of the performance to believe it is not bigger. It pulls with an eagerness that encourages you to explore its full power. A combined fuel consumption of 40mpg also means that this performance does not need to break the bank. Handling is superb and the Beetle can be thrown into corners confidently with suspension that is perfectly matched to the performance. Steering is precise and allows you to place the car accurately on the road.

As a driver's car the Beetle does not disappoint and the levels of grip available mean that it is sportier than it first appears.

So it is unfair to compare the new Beetle with the old? I think it is. The original Beetle has a cult following and hails from a different era when requirements for cars in a competitive market were not as strenuous as they are now. But, the new Beetle has much to commend it. From a performance perspective the Beetle provides great fun from its 1.4 engine. Handling is up there with cars with far more sporty pretensions and it is practical too.

Is it a worthy successor to the original? I think unequivocally it has to be yes.

Purists will probably hate it but the new Beetle still has no equal in the looks stakes and with modern performance it is difficult to fault.

Back to black – the sporty Corsa Black Edition will be available with three or five-door models

Limited run of 500 models for turbo-charged Corsa

VAUXHALL has announced a new limited edition Corsa, which will be powered by an equally new 118bhp turbobocharged 1.4-litre petrol engine with stop-start technology.

The Black Edition is to be a sporty model available in three- or five-door body styles and wearing a host of stylistic upgrades including17in diamond-cut alloy wheels, a body-coloured front lower bumper 'spoiler', side sills, rear lower skirt and rear spoiler.

Just one picture has been officially released, with order books open now and a run of 500 having been planned.

Content

Standard interior equipment ranges from sports seats and a leather-covered steering wheel to sports pedals, silver interior seat stitching – in colour, not in precious metal content - and matt chrome air vent surrounds.

An upmarket infotainment system, climate control and 'adaptive forward lighting' will be optional extras.

Retail prices have been confirmed as £15,995 for the three-door model and £16,425 for the five-door version.

Skoda's saloon is to share advances with Jetta

SKODA has released further details of its fast-approaching Rapid compact saloon following a concept image some months ago.

Sized in between the Fabia and Octavia, the Rapid aims to capture sales in a corner of the market it currently doesn't serve. It's likely that it will end up sharing a lot of parts and technology with the Volkswagen Jetta. However, the Rapid is the first Skoda to showcase the next generation of the company's styling.

Despite being smaller in every direction, it looks quite similar in proportions to a current generation Octavia, but with a nod towards the sort of straight-line architecture that the first Volkswagen-era Octavia used at its 2001 release.

Baggage

Skoda claims the Rapid will have room for five plus their baggage, with five petrol and two diesel engines offered at launch.

With the fast efficiency advances being made with small, turbocharged petrol engines and the impending Euro 6 emissions laws that take into account diesel engines' particulate emissions, Skoda is anticipating that buyers will begin to swing back towards petrol.

The Skoda Rapid – a compact saloon with plenty of room for five people and their luggage

King of the road – industry experts expect the CLS Shooting Brake to go on sale at around £48,000

Shooting Brake on target to be a Mercedes winner

Mercedes-Benz has debuted its hotly anticipated new CLS Shooting Brake.

Boasting a new structure from the B-pillar rearwards, the CLS Shooting Brake also presents owners with more rear load space than conventional estate cars from fellow German makers Audi and BMW.

Wheelbase remains the same between four-door and wagon variants, while the latter is only a fraction longer overall.

In keeping with its semi-exclusive market positioning, the Shooting Brake will be available with a modest line-up of engines, although key diesel and petrol motors will be available.

Furthermore, an AMG-tuned version will follow on from the regular car's November UK launch.

Pricing and final equipment details have yet to be released but industry watchers expect the CLS Shooting Brake to be as generously equipped as its four-door cousin and be priced from around £48,000 when it hits the showrooms before the end of the year.

The Power to Surprise

Koreans hit mark with second generation Cee'd

THE MAN who has made modern Kias look so smart had almost nothing to do with the car that made everyone sit up and take notice of the company back in 2007.

The original Kia cee'd arrived about the same time as Bavarian Peter Schreyer took charge of the look of future models.

Didn't stop the original selling like fermented Korean vegetables in Seoul, though, with 450,000 sold in Europe – 55,000 of them in the UK.

A big part of the car's success came from being designed and built in Europe and sold only on this continent. Earlier cars from the Far East had suffered from looking and feeling wrong when downloaded to a road in, say, deepest Northamptonshire.

If that first Slovakian-built cee'd didn't look especially standout it at least looked a lot like other European competitors in a restrained, modern sort of way. The new cee'd you see here takes the game on, with Schreyer's distinctive slashes and swoops lending the car the air of something designed with the help of a high-wielded sword.

It looks dramatic and utterly up to date and stands comparison to any of its competitors, from Focus to Astra (which comes closest to the cee'd's looks).

Move inside the body, made a little longer, lower and narrower this time, and you're faced with a dashboard that's a bit unrelentingly black, but saved by a mix of textures and an obvious attention to fit and finish.

Gearbox

The bits you don't see are uprated usefully, so there's a bit more power and economy nudges up a tad across the range, which includes 1.4 and 1.6 litre petrol and diesel engines and, for the first time, the option of a bang up to date double clutch automatic gearbox.

Prices range from £14,395 for a cee'd with 1.4 litre petrol engine in '1' trim to a heady £23,795 for a 1.6 diesel with automatic gears and in top spec '4 Tech' trim that includes sat nav and the ability to parallel-park itself without the driver touching the steering wheel.

Kia thinks the most popular new cee'd will be the model you see here, with 126bhp diesel power and in '2' trim, which adds goodies like alloy wheels, cruise control, reversing sensors, electrically folding and heated door mirrors to a base car spec that comes with air con, remote central locking, front electric windows and i-Pod compatible sound system. Also fitted to the test car was adjustable-effort steering, with normal, very light or sportingly firm available at the push of a button. I reckoned normal was fine and Kia could save cash and ditch the choices.

That might free funds to make the red on black figures of the trip computer more readable in sunlight.

The high definition display on the top '4' spec cars is a delight by comparison, but you have to upgrade to get it. Still, that's a minor niggle from a car that otherwise impressed .

The transmission is a six-gear manual unit which produces a smooth ride

Extras such as a sat nav can help the resale value

ADDING optional extras can affect a car's resale value more than many Brits may think, with some options even paying for themselves when you come to sell your motor, car valuation say experts at Glass.co.uk

Glass's also warns that some extras may add no value at all and in some cases, especially 'DIY' extras such as self-fitted stereos, can reduce a car's value.

The sat-nav has become the stalwart extra on many new cars, especially luxury models, and is something many Brits just can't live without.

Entertainment

According to Glass's, this makes a sat-nav a smart investment when you buy a new car and in many cases will pay for itself when the car is sold.

For example, installing a sat-nav entertainment system onto a new Audi Q3 might set you back £500. But if you sell your car two years later it will be worth £500 more than one without the sat-nav, meaning you've enjoyed a great extra at no additional cost.

The smart buys don't stop there. Bluetooth systems which allow drivers to connect devices such as mobile phones to their car wirelessly also see very high demand among buyers and will usually retain 50 per cent of their value over three years – so essentially a good extra to have.

But there is some pimping your pocket could do without. Added extras such as 21-inch wheels and rear entertainment systems on the Audi A8 will set you back £3,500 and £3,800 respectively and offer little to no resale upside.

Additional

In both cases you'll lose much of this investment when it comes to selling.

Additionally, safety systems such as brake and lane assist can surprisingly add no additional value to a car when motorists come to sell it.

Richard Crosthwaite, Glass's prestige car editor, comments: "It is so easy to get carried away, ticking the extras boxes when buying a car, but you really need to do some research.

"Tick the right boxes and the extras will pay for themselves – pick the wrong ones and you could be paying for it in the long run."

The Audi Q3 – adding a sat-nav entertainment system won't cost you a penny in the long run

The Jeep Grand Cherokee SRT, packed with luxury goods runs on premium 91-octane petrol

Smart V8 Jeep Cherokee cuts cylinders at low throttle

THE NEW Jeep Grand Cherokee SRT has bucked the downsizing trend with a larger and more powerful V8 – but most of the time it works as a V4.

The clever new engine uses technology already seen on several other high-end cars over the last two years, where four cylinders are shut off on a light throttle input.

However, unlike other systems, the Grand Cherokee SRT's 6.4-litre Hemi V8 is designed to maintain four-cylinders-only operation for as much of the time as possible.

This sort-of-admirable nod towards the environment will reward buyers with a heady claimed average of 14.1mpg, with CO2 listed at 328g/km. Not for the tight-of-wallet, then.

With potential for 461bhp and 460lb.ft with all eight cylinders singing, the 2.36-tonne SRT hits 62mph in five seconds and reaches a 160mph top speed.

Its permanent four-wheel-drive system's default set-up delivers equal torque to the front and rear wheels, but it can be biased 65 per cent towards the rear for a more aggressive drive.

Chrysler is very keen to put the Grand Voyager SRT across as a driver's car, with an electronic limited-slip differential and F1-style paddle-shift technology. The old-tech five-speed automatic gearbox and minimum requirement for 'premium' 91-octane petrol tell a different story, though.

Inside the car is packed with luxury gizmos and leather upholstery. The company has thrown everything it has at the car, to make it a flagship with a capital F.

And the price? A relatively modest £58,995, which is actually remarkable value for the very small number of likely buyers, to whom the recession was probably a mere irritation.

Nonetheless, it's a lot of performance SUV for the money.

Training courses aimed at safety first for bike riders

IT IS a sad fact that motorcycle, scooter and moped riders are still over-represented in terms of the numbers of serious injuries and loss of life on our roads.

Although motorcyclists are not always at fault, the Safer Roads Partnership in West Mercia – which covers Worcestershire, Shropshire and Herefordshire – continues to offer a skills enhancement course at a significantly reduced cost.

The Take Control scheme aims to help bikers of all abilities improve their riding skills, machine control, threat perceptions and spacial awareness.

Take Control is in its fourth year and all training is now provided by RMT Motorcycle Training based in Redditch and Tyseley.

Dangers

Director of RMT, Simon Hayes, explains the benefits: "No one likes to be told that they would benefit from training, but Take Control is intended to develop skills beyond the quite basic requirements of passing your test. There is much more to riding a bike well and a large part of what we focus on is helping to see the dangers early, avoiding them safely and enjoying the ride; after all, it is supposed to be fun!

Experienced riders can practice advanced riding techniques whilst polishing out the bad habits that we all develop over time and new riders can learn a lot and build confidence in just a few hours."

Take Control is currently available to all motorcyclists who live in Worcestershire, Shropshire and Herefordshire. Full motorcycle licence holders have a full day on offer at just £50; this is less than a third of the typical cost. New and young riders taking the next step after passing their CBT pay a subsidised rate of just £25 for a three hour session. Every session is personalised to the needs of each biker and no test is involved. The instructors can also start at convenient meeting points across the three counties.

The Take Control Scheme is geared to help riders of all abilities

Tourer set to be star in Vauxhall Astra fleet

Sleek mover – the Sports Tourer comes with a range of engine options

The cabin has well signposted controls with everything in the right place

By Graham Breeze

TESTING the Vauxhall Astra Sports Tourer proved to be a bigger surprise than expected. Because this isn't just an extended Astra. In fact this model is a very good alternative to the many compact MPVs or 4x4s on the market at the moment.

And striking Sports Tourer branding makes this Vauxhall stand out in any company meaning it is anything but the boring estate I was expecting to see arriving for test.

The characteristics of the Astra have been cleverly transposed to the Sports Tourer. The slim, sharp "eagle-eye" headlight treatment, low and wide mounted indicator lights, combined with the wide, low radiator grille, make an immediate impact.

Outwardly flowing lines that seamlessly bring the wing profile into the A pillars highlight dynamic sporting aerodynamics.

The Astra Sports Tourer's 165bhp 2.0-litre CDTi proved to be a powerful and extremely spacious number.

Compared to some of its main competition Vauxhall re-sale prices are not noted as being up there with the best but I suspect the biggest market for this model will come from fleet business.

It looks great inside and out with an attractive cabin, built with good looking plastic. There's impressive head and leg room up front and in the back where rear seat passengers soon expressed their impressed views.

Higher specification versions of the Sports Tourer are fitted with the FlexFold seating system allowing both sections of the 60/40 split rear bench to be folded down at the touch of a button.

With all of the rear seats folded down, the Sports Tourer gains a flat load floor and a total capacity of 1,550 litres. There's a further 25-litres of space in cubbyholes and pockets doted around the cabin.

There's a wide range of engine options and trim levels and there's an option list to satisfy just about all demands.

Standard equipment on all Astras includes ESP, six airbags, air conditioning, LED daytime running lights and electric windows.

You have to upgrade to Exclusive trim to add cruise control and stereo controls on the steering wheel, and to SE or SRi for standard alloy wheels.

Other options include mood lighting, sports seats and adaptive front lights which adapt to the weather and road ahead.

Functional

Vauxhall's cabins are noted for their functional rather than futuristic set-ups and the Astra Tourer is no different – though the controls are well signposted and everything is where you would expect it to be which is not always the case these days.

Where the Sports Tourer scores top marks is its smooth ride with a sharp responsive drive and plenty of grip though you have to remember this model is at the top of the range so you get what you pay for.

The Astra's suspension is silent, road noise well suppressed and the engine surprisingly quiet.

You have to upgrade to Exclusive trim to add cruise control and stereo controls on the steering wheel, and to SE or SRi for standard alloy wheels.

Vauxhall have got things right on the button with the Sports Tourer and with big things expected at Ellesmere Port you can expect to see more and more Astras on the road.

The satnav system is well positioned on the dash

Anglers happy as lakes left brimming

ALL Blackfords waters have been fishing well recently with some impressive match weights from Calf Heath Reservoir and Kingswood Lake, writes Vernon Leadbetter.

Carp anglers have also been enjoying some good sport with fish of over 20lb been caught.

Over at Fisherwick Lakes, the recent introduction of restrictions on excessive baiting and bait boat usage are now reaping rewards to anglers on both the specimen and Dave's Lake.

Lots of fish are being caught in the margins. Andy Hyden, from Cannock, managed two personal bests, a 23lb 8oz mirror carp and a 21lb 1oz common carp, part of a nine-fish haul.

Martin Yeomans, from Cannock, had a great session on bread paste and boilies, catching six carp including commons of 28lb and 20lb and mirrors of 24lb, 20lb, a 19lb mirror and 15lb. Dean Smart, also from Cannock, had a 24lb mirror and two 15lb mirrors.

Bob Kingston – 'Bob the Bailiff' – proved floater fishing is a great way to catch with a 19lb 11oz common and 19lb 4oz mirror on dog biscuits, both fish falling within 10 minutes of each other.

Margins

Stu Bradley and brother Ashley caught 32 carp to 15lb and four bream to 8lb on pellets in the margins on Dave's Lake.

Trout fishing is also going well with a rod average of 1.8. Matt Suechmilski took six fish for 13lb, the best tipping the scales at 4lb, all caught on muddlers.

Trout anglers fishing Carsington Water have been enjoying some great sport. The rod average for last week was 4.47 with 487 fish caught by 109 anglers.

Heaviest rainbow was a rod-bending 4lb caught by D Bradily using a white leach. The north end of the reservoir has fished best.

Successful fly patterns used in conjunction with slow-sinking lines were Montana, HH damsel and blobs and during the evenings with floating lines, buzzers, cormorant, HH damsel, and Wendy fly. For details or to book, go to www.carsingtonwater.com

If you have any interesting catches to report, contact me at Archline Angling on 01543 426158,or call into the store at Unit 1 Brindley Business Park Chaseside Drive Cannock WS11 7GD or email info@archlineangling.co.uk

Woffinden could take Britain to world final

Australia 45 Great Britain 41
Czech Republic 30 Germany 15

TAI WOFFINDEN will bid tonight to help Great Britain through to the Speedway World Cup final in a sudden-death shoot-out in Sweden.

The Brits tackle the Czech Republic along with the sport's powerhouses Denmark and Poland in a four-way fight for the last remaining place in Saturday's showpiece in Malilla, Sweden.

Great Britain were always likely to make this evening's race-off at Malilla at the very least after being handed a favourable draw. They hosted Australia, the Czechs and Germany on Monday.

But both the Aussies and the Brits were all too well aware that direct qualification would be the easier route to join seeded hosts Sweden and Russia, who qualified from the other semi-final.

Sparkling

Consequently they went at it hammer and tongs at Lynn in a sparkling meeting on the excellent Norfolk Arena track.

The Brits went desperately close, Coventry's Chris Harris leading the way with a 17-point return while Wolves star Woffinden notched eight points, including a heat 18 victory which gave his side the merest glimmer of hope.

But Australia's big two, Chris Holder and Jason Crump, closed out the meeting in the final pair of races.

New Wolves double-up rider Matej Kus notched six for the Czech Republic who finished third, well clear of Germany.

The Parrys International Wolves have no matches this week, with the Elite League schedules cleared for World Cup action.

Their fixture at Coventry on Friday was rained off but they hope to return to action on Monday.

Lakeside are the visitors and feature Monmore legend Peter Karlsson, who is on loan to the Hammers, in their line-up.

Woffinden has been handed a place in the British Final at Monmore on July 30. With both semi-finals rained off, the top 16 Britons in the averages get a spot.

Australia: Jason Crump 15, Chris Holder 12, Davey Watt 11, Troy Batchelor 7. Great Britain: Chris Harris 17, Scott Nicholls 11, Tai Woffinden 8, Danny King 5. Czech Republic: Ales Dryml 15, Lukas Dryml 6, Matej Kus 6, Josef Franc 3. Germany: Kevin Wolbert 7, Martin Smolinski 6, Max Dilger 1, Tobias Kroner 1.

Scholars boss is ready for first assignments

CHASETOWN manager Craig Harris today vowed to use all of the players at his disposal as his approaches his first assignments in charge of the club.

Harris starts out at Sporting Khalsa on Saturday, where he intends to give all 16 signed members of his squad a run out of, at least, 45 minutes of football.

Then comes the first home game at the helm for the ex-club captain at the Scholars Ground on Monday evening.

by Craig Birch

A strong side from Football League club Crewe should provide a stern test for their Evo-Stik Northern Premier League Division One South hosts.

A Scholars side of reserves and trialists also go to Midland Alliance side Heath Hayes the following night and Harris will be on the sidelines throughout.

Over the three games, supporters will catch their first glimpses of new signings Nick Wellecomme, Gary Hay, Matthew Jukes, Matt Johnson and David Bate in match action.

And the new boss – who replaced Chris Brindley in May – has promised to give fans a glimpse into the club's future with a hard-working and aggressive side.

He said: "Crewe will be hard enough, our lads need some football in their legs but I can't give them too much just yet.

"We are taking the first-team squad on Saturday and they will all get, at least, 45 minutes and they all deserve some football.

"I am excited, I can't wait to get started and, by the time it comes around, the lads will be ready for a game as well.

"There's only so much training you can do, you can't be taking lads along in pre-season and then give them no football.

"It will be tough, Khalsa are a very ambitious club with big interests and it's a nice surface at Noose Lane.

"First of all, we want to be very workmanlike when we haven't got the ball, but expansive when we have.

"I want us to be an attacking and hungry team with youth on our side and a sprinkling of experience."

Chasetown have lost long-standing star strikers Dean Perrow and Gary Birch this summer to Leamington and Solihull Moors respectively.

Player of the Year Jimmy Turner also joined Stafford Rangers late last week.

Harris said: "We are sorry to see him leave; Jimmy has been a good servant to the club and we wish him well.

"The door is always open for him to come back, he's a lad we like."

Confidence mixed with caution call for Pitmen

AFC Wulfrunians 2
Hednesford Town 5

HEDNESFORD TOWN boss Rob Smith declared himself happy with his side's performance but warned of more hard work to come after the Evo Stik Northern Premier side beat AFC Wulfrunians at Castlecroft Road.

"It was nice to see the new faces playing for us," he said. "Our attitude was right and we acquitted ourselves well, especially in the first half. We've looked at getting options up front all close season and we looked full of goals."

After both teams found their rhythm early on the lush playing surface, the Pitmen scored three quick goals with Sam Barnes opening the scoring on 25 minutes before Elliott Durrell doubled his team's lead 60 seconds later and Michael Lennon added a third on 28 minutes.

The Pitmen were well in control when Dave MacPherson set up Lennon for his second and The Pitmen's fourth on 37 minutes, but Wulfrunians rallied in the second half.

The home side caused problems with Nathan Rose-Laing tapping the ball in from close range on 51 minutes but hitting a weak penalty at Dan Crane five minutes later. A plethora of substitutions slowed the pace of the game, but Wulfrunians continued to battle hard in midfield and Andy Thompson pounced to score.

Impressive substitute Sean O'Connor, making a successful return to Hednesford after over a decade away, set up MacPherson to make it five and his strong hold-up play might have brought a sixth goal but for a save.

The Pitmen will be pleased with their successful start to an important pre-season campaign and Wulfrunians should be encouraged by the tough test they gave to higher opposition, especially in the second half.

Shire Oak rounders girls play the best

A GIRLS' rounders team from Walsall are one of the best 16 teams in the country.

The Shire Oak Academy year 10 team, aged 14 and 15, qualified for the national tournament, run by Rounders England, after beating teams from Streetly, Willenhall and Shelfield.

The finals, with a minority of the sides from state schools, took place in Corby, Northamptonshire.

Teams were split into four groups of four, each side playing three matches. Shire Oak opened against St Peters School, York, losing 12-4. The second match saw them face Dinnington School, South Yorkshire, a tight affair with Dinnington winning by two rounders.

Despite these defeats, the girls still fought strongly against Crompton House, Oldham, but were on the losing side. However, they were not disheartened and promptly arranged a friendly against Solihull.

PE teacher and coach Sara Eccleston said: "The girls had reached this event which was between the top 16 teams in the country, something to be extremely proud of. The girls had a great attitude, being positive, playing as a team."

Team members: Aliyah Ferguson, Kirsty Thomas, Chloe Partlow, Charlotte Newman, Jade La'Moon, Jess Sedgwick, Bryony Toon, Jess Gunn, Sam Smith, Elizabeth Askew, Louise Chandler and Charley Birch.

Fans raise Toby cash

A CHARITY football match to raise money for Toby Craddock, the son of Wolves defender Jody, will take place on Saturday at the Goals Soccer Centre in Willenhall.

Two-and-a-half-year-old Toby has acute lymphoblastic leukaemia and has started a lengthy process of treatment at Birmingham Children's Hospital.

The match, which takes place from 1pm, will be contested by Midlands football fans from Wolves, West Brom and Birmingham.

All proceeds go to the hospital's charities with players paying £15 to take part. Spectators are welcome and will be subject to a small charge to watch the game. There will be a disco and raffle afterwards.

Play-off win leads to lads' fourth cup

ST JOSEPH'S Primary School, Hednesford won the Cannock & District champions league play-offs.

Victory over Fulfen on penalties in the semi-final, thanks to a coolly-taken spot-kick from Joe Chave, led to a final against St. Luke's.

This game also went to penalties, after a 1-1 draw, and again St Joseph's came out on top.

It was the team's fourth trophy this season – they have also won the Cannock & District League, the Cardinal Griffin Cluster League and the Cardinal Griffin Cluster tournament.

In addition, they were runners-up in the Cannock & District tournament.

Teacher Mark Hussell said: "The amazing run is purely down to the team's togetherness, spirit and the children's hard work."

Aces to tackle top Polish side

CYCLE speedway stars in Wolverhampton are to clash with a top Polish side.

Torun riders are travelling to the UK for the European individual championships – and will meet Wednesfield Aces in an exhibition match.

The fixture will be staged at the Aces' Ashmore Park track on Wednesday, August 1, with a 7.15pm start.

Gates will open at 6.30pm, admission is free and refreshments will be available at the clubhouse.

Torun were only founded in 1999 yet have won a series of honours including Polish and European championships and been World Cup runners-up.

Straw turns into gold with 1,500m triumph

RUNNER Becky Straw grabbed a gold medal for the West Midlands in the Aviva English track and field championships in Gateshead.

Straw, who runs for Cannock and Stafford AC, won the senior girls' 1,500m race. The 17-year-old clocked four minutes 27.18 seconds as she held off Avon's Olivia Sadler in second and Katherine Turner in third.

"I am really pleased with the gold," said Straw. "I wanted to get a medal here, but I know nobody was going to hand it to me on a plate.

"I spoke to my coach beforehand and he said that 'you have no absolute right to get this, so you have to work for it' so that is what I did.

"My coach told me to kick on with 240m left but I kind of started my wind-up at 400m and managed to hold on.

Advice

"I have the same coach as Hannah England (world silver medalist). Obviously, I don't keep up with her but she gives me great advice as I train with her at Birmingham University."

Cannock and Stafford AC had a total of 10 athletes taking part. Emma Hamplett threw a personal best and club record of 39.57 metres to win the Under-15 girls javelin and go to No.1 in the UK rankings. Club members Lucy Heap and Harry Marshall threw 30.50m and 45.18m respectively.

Natalie Muckerji qualified for the junior girls 100m final after finishing third in her heat and fifth in her semi-final. Muckerji recorded a personal best of 12.69sec in the heat and then 12.81sec in wet conditions for the semi-final.

Athletics

In the televised final on Saturday she was last but ran 12.76sec, the third time she had gone under her previous personal best during the two days of competition.

Eleanor Proud knocked almost three-tenths of a second off her 300m best time, finishing third in her heat in 41.41sec.

Jess Leek jumped 5.12m in the long jump and James McCann was fifth in his 800m heat on 2.02.05.

Olivia Walker qualified from the senior girls 100m hurdles semi-final when finishing fourth in 14.94sec and then came sixth in the final in a time of 14.81secs.

Fellow hurdler Steve Thompson was sixth in his junior boys 80m heat in 12.44sec.

Aviva have been backing the British athletes and the GB & NI Team since 1999. Details: #BackTheTeam or search for 'Aviva Athletics' on Facebook.

Lockmen grounded in FA Cup

WILLENHALL will play host to landlords Sporting Khalsa when both teams enter the FA Cup in the extra preliminary round.

The Lockmen will take on Khalsa in a home game for both sides at Noose Lane on Saturday, August 11, with both also at home in the first round of the FA Vase.

A fixture rethink will be needed as Willenhall are due to host Brocton, while Khalsa are also scheduled to welcome Heath Hayes on Saturday, September 10.

Willenhall are back in the West Midlands League for the first time since 1994 and will kick off in the Premier Division next month.

The Lockmen have a busy pre-season fixture list and all four of their scheduled friendlies will come away from home.

They now travel to face Evo-Stik Northern Premier League Division South opposition on Saturday.

A gulf of two divisions will exist for the Lockmen at Sutton Coldfield Town, before they travel to Castle Vale next Saturday.

Coleshill host them on Saturday, July 28 as do another league rival from last season, Loughborough University, on Wednesday, August 1.

Club stages first rugby sevens test

CANNOCK RUFC are to stage their inaugural rugby sevens tournament.

The club recently won the Rugeley event and will be entering teams for competitions at Essington and Wednesbury.

Cannock's big day will be on August 18.

There's plenty going on at the club, as first team captain Jon Freeman indicated. "We have secured accreditation from the RFU and are deep into plans for a massive overhaul and extension to improve our clubhouse facilities, in particular the changing room areas," he said.

"We have a DJ from Stafford Radio coming down for the sevens to provide entertainment and announcements as well as food and drink and some cracking rugby.

"The only thing we can't organise in advance is the weather."

Early fight on runs is lost to yet more rain

Brewood 61-4 v Cannock. Abandoned

CANNOCK firsts' Birmingham Premier Division Two match at home to Brewood went the way of virtually all other games – washed out.

Cannock won the toss, opted to bowl and made early inroads into the visitors' batting.

Jack Twigger and Edward Fleet took a wicket apiece before Andy Hawkins stepped in to claim 2-29 and leave Brewood awkwardly placed on 61-4.

But down came the rain and the game was abandoned.

Wolverhampton Colts 125-9, Cannock Sunday Colts 129-6. Cannock won by four wickets

Cannock visited Wolverhampton for a top-of-the-table clash and came away with a four-wicket win.

They lost the toss and were made to field, but an excellent bowling display restricted Wolverhampton to 125-9 from their 40 overs.

Elliott Horton starred with 4-26 while Nat Hailey (2-15) , Dan Wood (2-16) and Reece Tomlinson (1-17) took wickets.

In reply, Cannock found themselves in trouble when pegged back to 32-4 and conditions becoming harder.

With the persistent drizzle, a tricky pitch became even harder to bat on but stands of 35 between Horton and Ryan Pearce and then 58 between Horton and Jacob Newport saw Cannock home with four wickets and five overs remaining and Horton unbeaten on 63.

Newport, an under-13 player, showed great resilience in tense and difficult circumstances to stay with Horton in what became the winning partnership.

Tiegen given home venue

YOUNG Burntwood powerboat racer Tiegen Goodfellow is looking to local knowledge to close the national age group championship gap this weekend.

Ten-year-old Goodfellow is currently second behind world and European champion Ben Jelf.

But on Saturday and Sunday the Powerboat GP national championship moves to Kingsbury Water Park near Tamworth, which is Goodfellow's local club.

She made the journey to Cardiff Bay last month for the previous round, but adverse weather meant it was too dangerous to race.

Russ Kennemore (red colours) takes up the running on Number Theory

Kennemore's Cup win

Horse racing

RUGELEY jockey Russ Kennemore racked up his biggest career win at the weekend, landing the Old Newton Cup at Haydock Park.

Course specialist Number Theory, with former Reg Hollinshead apprentice Kennemore on board, held on by a neck to claim the 215th running of the race.

Hollinshead has a long-established record of developing talented young jockeys at his Upper Longdon yard. The progressive four-year-old Number Theory is trained in Leicestershire by John Holt.

Holt himself has a superb record at Haydock – now 10 of his last 13 runners there in the last five years have won or been placed.

This win was never really in doubt, despite a quickly diminishing and narrow victory.

Number Theory was always travelling well under Kennemore, regardless of being a pound overweight.

He emerged just over a furlong out and held on well under pressure from the unexposed Quiz Mistress and the evergreen Tepmokea.

But the hero of the hour was Number Theory, who was notching up his fourth course win and has also been placed on his other three starts there. He will surely chase a fifth victory soon.

PITMEN TRIMMING DOWN THEIR SQUAD

HEDNESFORD manager Rob Smith will operate with a 16-man squad next season and expects to make another four signings before the start of the campaign.

The Pitmen kicked off their pre-season programme with a 5-2 win at AFC Wulfrunians on Tuesday night, with three new-boys on the scoresheet.

Michael Lennon bagged a couple of goals with Sam Barnes and Dave MacPherson also finding the net.

by Craig Birch

Elliott Durrell notched the other and has re-signed to stay at Keys Park for the new season along with Darren Campion, Ben Bailey, Jamey Osborne and goalkeeper Dan Crane.

Further Pitmen summer captures were on display at Castlecroft – Phil Clarke, Neil Harvey, Aaron Rey and John Disney, the latest arrival to the club in a move from Northwich.

Trialists Sean O'Connor, German midfielder Ronny Hoffman and Stuart Hendrie – younger brother of former Villa and England midfielder Lee – also played a part.

And Smith revealed his plans to streamline his squad as he looks for quality not quantity.

He said: "More signings are imminent, but we have 12 signed up, two more pending, and then I will only add a further two.

"The downside is that we will be running with a small squad, but we have to and will run a tight ship.

"We are not in the business of going the way other clubs have recently, but we still hope to be competitive."

The squad are in their second week back of pre-season training and Smith has been pleased with their application from the off.

He said: "The positives have been the spirit in the squad that has formed very quickly given the amount of new players.

"The quality has looked good and, most importantly, the fitness levels have been impressive. The players have worked very hard.

"It has been a mixture of endurance work combined with some hill work and plenty of ball work.

"They did four sessions in the first six days of pre-season alone."

The most eye-catching of the Pitmen's new arrivals were striking trio Lennon, Harvey and Rey from league rivals Nantwich and Marine.

The three plundered 49 goals between them in the Evo-Stik Northern Premier League last season and Smith believes goalscorers are now on board.

He said: "There are some really good characters joining the club and some players who I am sure the fans will like.

"The reaction of them with the existing players has been very encouraging and I can see a dramatic improvement in our forward play.

"We have a lot more goalscorers now."

Stuart Hendrie was just one of the trialists who played a part for Hednesford as they opened their pre-season programme with 5-2 friendly win against AFC Wulfrunians at Castlecroft on Tuesday night. Match report - see page 90.
